Pastor Denounces Dangerous Move By F. D. R.

Late in December, Stephen Early, White House press secretary announced that Myron C. Taylor had been appointed as personal representative of the president of the United States to the Vatican.

Immediately, Elder L. D. Newton, a Baptist pastor from Atlanta, Georgia, sent the following letter to the president:

"My dear Mr. President:
"The announcement in the press on December 24, 1939, that you have appointed a personal representative to the Vatican, raises certain questions which I wish you would answer for the sake of a fuller understanding on this apparently unique policy for our government.

"With regard to the announced purpose of 'furthering common endeavors for peace and the alleviation of suffering,' there would be no question, but with regard to the method, may I inquire:

"First, Is the salary and expense of this Personal Representative of the President of the United States to be paid by you personally, or is it to be paid from the public treasury?

"Second, if from the public treasury has there been an enabling act of the congress authorizing such payment of public funds in keeping with the provision of the Constitution of the United States, Section Nine, Paragraph Seven, which reads, 'No money shall be

Too Much Preaching? Fooy!

Over in Philadelphia, recently the Rector of the Holy Trinity Church, suggested a three year moratorium on sermons. Said he, "There is far too much preaching. It's bad for you. Anybody at least twenty-five years old should be able to find the way to God by himself."

I heartily agree with the Rector that there is too much preaching of his kind. In fact, any kind of preaching that he has to offer in any amount, is far too much. Yet, there isn't enough of the Bible kind of preaching. Whenever a man takes God out of Christ, the fire

What Do You Know About The Movies?

Did you know that 77 million people attend the movies in America weekly?

Did you know that this is four times as many as attend all the Sunday schools in America weekly, including Catholics, Protestants, Jews, Christian Scientists, Spiritualist, people of every ism, Christian and unchristian; believers and modernists?

Did you know that they stay on an average twice as long, making the influence eight times as powerful as the Sunday schools in American life?

Did you know what the League of Nations Committee of Child Welfare said about a careful analysis of 250 American films, finding ninety-seven murders, fifty-one cases of adultery, nineteen seductions, twenty-two abductions, and forty-five suicides?

Would you believe it that in these 250 films there were 176 thieves, twenty-five prostitutes, thirty-five drunkards?

Did you know what the Chicago Censorship Board found in 788 pictures — and that they had to eliminate 1,811 scenes of assault with guns with intent to kill, 175 scenes of assault with knives, 231 scenes of hanging, 757 scenes of nudity and semi-nudity; and twenty-one scenes of jail-breaking?

What Do Baptists And Campbellites Have In Common?

When the delegates to the World's Conference of Christian Youth in Amsterdam, (July 24 to August 23), returned to America, the young people of both the Northern Baptists and the Campbellites, drew up a memorandum which is to be presented to both of their respective denominations. In part, they say:

"We are conscious that we ourselves, as members of the Northern Baptist Convention and the International Convention

Why I Am Opposed To Our President's Vatican Appointment

1. Concerning the public schools, Cardinal Gibbons said, "An imperfect and vicious system of education which undermines the religion of youth."

2. "We must take part in the elections, move in a solid mass in every state against the party pledged to sustain the integrity of the public schools." — Cardinal McClosky.

3. "I would as soon administer sacrament to a dog as to Catholics who send their children to public

Five Modernists Weighed And Found Wanting

The Word of God declares that we are to "earnestly contend for the faith." (Jude 3) It is because of this, that we often take issue with those who differ with us. Of recent date we have had the utterances of five outstanding religious leaders, and it is our purpose now in the light of their words, to "earnestly contend for the faith."

BISHOP FRANCIS McCONNELL in his book, "The Christ Like God" had this to say concerning Christ as God: "Is not this tendency to deify Jesus more heathen than Christian?" By his statement, he infers that if we think of Christ as God, then we are heathen in our thinking.

Compare this with the Word of God. "Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? He that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?" (John 14:9) "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh." (1 Tim. 3:16) "Behold a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us." (Matt 1:23) "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall

"The World Of Tomorrow"

At the New York World's Fair, one of the most popular exhibits was "The World of Tomorrow", which depicts a city of the future. Highways, theaters, office buildings, amusement parks, factories, schools, lakes, railroads, modern farms, motor trucks, heating, lighting, telephone service, and everything necessary to man's economic well being is pictured as it possibly may appear tomorrow. Yet, beloved, the "world of tomorrow" is conspicuous by the absence of any church.

Possibly the "world of tomorrow" won't feel any need of a

"Whittlers Of The Word"

"Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be. And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king. So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the ninth month; and there was a fire on the hearts burning before him. And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was con-
