I Am A Missionary Baptist

Buell H. Kazee, Morehead, Ky.

Brother Kazee expresses exactly the sentiments of the editor in this article. I am a Baptist and not a foe of Baptists. I am too good a Baptist to see evil go on within our denomination without exposing and seeking to correct it. Both Bro. Kazee and the editor are far better Baptists than those Baptists who tolerate and condone the evils of the denomination. They are the real enemies of Baptists.

Sometime ago there was published an article by me entitled, "Loyalty to Christ, or to —?" In this article I made clear that there is a great danger of our becoming loyal to the denomination and substitute that for loyalty to Christ. Loyalty to a thing, or an organization, or a movement, does not produce spiritual life; but loyalty to Christ alone will do this. I stated that I did not agree with the ever-increasing superstructure of our denomination which has gotten out of our hands, and becomes master instead of our servant.

I do not mean here to repeat the article, but to give this sub-

A Moment With God

A moment in the morning
Ere the cares of day begin,
Ere the heart's wide door is open
For the world to enter in;
Ah, then, alone with Jesus
In the silence of the morn,
In Heavenly, sweet communion,
Let your happy day be born;
In the quietude that blesses
With a prelude of repose,
Let your soul be soothed and softened
As the dew revives the rose.

A moment in the morning
Take your Bible in your hand,
And catch a glimpse of glory
From the peaceful promised Land;
It will linger still before you
When you seek the busy mart,
And, like flowers of hope,
Will blossom in your heart;
The precious words, like jewels,
Will glisten all the day,
With a rare effulgent glory
That will brighten all the way.

Living For Him And Others

A Scottish engineer at Bombay took lodgings in the Jewish quarter. He did not understand a syllable of Hebrew, and could not converse with the Jews; but he showed them kindness and let them see that he was a happy man. After a while he died. Some years later in Bagdad a missionary was called upon by a Jew, who said he wanted to know more about Christ. He told about this Scottish engineer at Bombay, how happy he always seemed; how often amid trials and sufferings his face was always shining. This, said the Jew, made such an impression upon him that he wanted the mystery explained. The explanation led to his conversion.—Bonar.

A writer, Hans Fosmark, stopped in Hamburg, Germany, and walked about among the ruins of the city. He asked a young man about Jesus. "I don't know him, for I don't live in this part of the city. It may be difficult to find him for so many people have changed address of late. I suggest that you try to locate the address at the police station," was the answer given by the young man.

In conversations with other young people, Mr. Fosmark learned that many of them had no Biblical knowledge at all. They did not know the names of Adam and Eve. Nazism did not permit religious instruction.

Now, this was in Hamburg, but you may find the same religious ignorance in many other countries. You may find it in the United States. I once tried to interest a boy of nine in Sunday school. I told him we would teach him something about Jesus, to which the boy said, "Jesus? What kind of a fellow is that?"

Mused Uncle Mose

"Sist' Lillie Snodgrass busy mos' ob de time wid big so-ciety doin's, but she onlucky in religion: look lak ev'y time she do git to chu-ch, hit's one o' dem days w'en de pahson is trimmin' off a few limbs."

You may ask many people in our own land about Jesus who could not give an intelligent answer. They do not know Jesus. They have a great deal of mechanical knowledge, and they know the movie stars, the sport heroes, and the stories of Blondie and Dagwood, but have no Christian knowledge. They do not know God; they have no sense of sin; prayer has no meaning to them; Jesus is also unknown to them. If they know His name, they have no idea of what salvation means.

Some temptations come to the industrious, but all temptations attack the idle.—C. H. Spurgeon.

Watch Out For The Little Foxes

A holy life is made up of a number of small things: little words, no eloquent speeches or sermons; little deeds, not miracles or battles, nor one great heroic act of mighty martyrdom, make up the true Christian life. The little constant sunbeam, not the lightning; the waters of Siliam "that go softly" in the meek mission of refreshment, not the "waters of the river, great and many," rushing down in noisy torrents, are the true symbols of a holy life. The avoidance of little evils, little sins, little inconsistencies, little weaknesses, little follies, indiscretions and imprudencies, little foibles, little indulgences of the flesh; the avoidance of such little things as these go far to make great characters.

thought: And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwallled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates, To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land. Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

"Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord God; In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it? And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army: And thou shalt come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes." Ezek. 38:1-16.

One of the major events scheduled to occur during the dying struggles of an old order and the ushering in of a new will be the fulfillment of the prophecy of Ezekiel, recorded in chapter thirty-eight.

In our earlier studies of this chapter we concluded that this prophecy would be fulfilled as the closing act of world war number two. The two world-wide conflicts as view in the prophecies were recorded in such perfect alignment that they had the appearance of being joined together. This is not uncommon in prophecy. It is very evident at this juncture that another world conflagration will not be far removed from the others and that all very definitely tie up as a united event.

Few people seem to realize that all the difficulties and the distress of nations since 1914 including wars, revolutions, famines, pestilences, increased earthquakes, the rise and fall of nations, disturbances in the heavenly bodies, the return of the Jews to Palestine attended by the opposition of the Arabs and certain elements among the Jews and Gentiles, are perfectly described in the Word of God as signs of Jesus' near coming to establish a new order — a reign of one thousand years of peace. Many world leaders who are Christless and wicked believe a reign of peace and a warless world can be realized by the adoption of their plans which leave God out and repudiate the return of Christ, but according to God's infallible prophetic word their plans and efforts will miserably fail. The dispensation of Grace is in the process of closing in fearful apostasy. Nothing but the purgatorial visitations of Divine judgments can cleanse the earth from its defilements.

On several occasions it appeared that the past war was shifting in the direction of Palestine, and at one time Germany let it be known that she was preparing for an invasion of the Near East. Hitler was persuaded by his war counsel to postpone this invasion in favor of an attack on Russia. His generals convinced him that they could finish the war against Russia in six weeks. The decision was made and the German forces invaded Russia, for the time was not ripe for the prophecy of Ezekiel to be fulfilled, nor were the nations mentioned in this battle lined up as the great prophet foresaw.

Just before the outbreak of hostilities in the second world war Germany entered into an alliance with Russia. On the surface this appeared to many students of prophecy to be the beginning of the northern alliance as described in this great prophetic chapter; however, in the entire picture given to us in Ezekiel 38, Gog, the chief prince of Russia, and not Germany, is in the lead. The entire prophecy is directed against Gog, the chief prince, and against his land; Magog (Russia); therefore, the leadership had to change from Hitler to Russia as it is this day.

The location of this great battle is designated, "the mountains of Israel." I wish to remind you here that Palestine is only a small portion of the promised land. The covenant God made with Abraham and his seed embraced a much larger section of country than that which was possessed by Israel. It was to extend from the river of Egypt (the Nile) to the Euphrates on the east. "In the same day the Lord made a covenant with Abraham, saying, unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates." (Gen. 15:18). If you will take the time to look on the map you will notice that many greatly coveted possessions, the Mosul oil fields, the Suez Canal, and the Dead Sea with its vast wealth of minerals, lie within this region. Apart from this, whoever controls the Near East, holds the balance of power in Europe, North Africa and the Far East. The Kaiser coveted this strip of country and built the Bagdad Railroad, but the first world war brought it under the British. Hitler coveted the Near East more than anything else he fought for but he has gone down in inglorious defeat. Stalin now plans to add it to his vast and expanding U. S. S. R. but has to face the same formidable foe Hitler faced—the British.

So many prophetic students believe that the prophecy of Ezekiel 38 and 39 is a description of Armaggedon. Like many other major prophecies there is a double scene here. The first battle is fought before the rise of the antichrist and before the seven years of tribulation under his diabolical reign and the second is the closing battle of the tribulation and, incidentally, of this dispensation.

The Two Battles Compared

Here in Ezekiel 38 we have two alliances of nations facing each other in battle, while at the battle of Armageddon the antichrist brings ALL nations against Jerusalem. In the first battle, which we may call for the sake of convenience, the battle of God against Gog, we have an alliance of nations we may term a northern federation: Gog, the chief prince or dictator of the land of Magog (Rosh or Russia); Meshech and Tubal (Moscow and Tobolsk), being the chief cities of the land; Persia (Iran), Ethiopia and Libya with Gomer (Germany), and Togarmah (Turkey) and all their bands.

"And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Rosh, (Heb.) Meshech and Tubal: And I will turn thee back, and put hooks in thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company, with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords: Persia, Ethiopia, Libya, with them; all of them with shield and helmet; Gomer, and all his bands; and the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee." (i. e. people of all smaller conquered countries and volunteer communists from all over the earth).

This alliance of nations under communistic Russia comes against another union of nations composed of the regathered Jews, Sheba, and Dedan (Arabs of Southern Arabia) the merchants of Tarshish and all her young lions thereof. Tarshish and all the young lions are identified as England and her colonies. "Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof shall say unto thee (Gog) Art thou come to take a spoil, to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, and to take a great spoil." They will remain in defense of Palestine and in possession of the land until after the judgment visited upon Russia and her allies.

There is no mention in the lineage of the daughter of Tarshish (America). It is possible she may be included in the "young lions" but that is not clear. When this struggle comes with Russia America may be even engaged with internal communistic trouble she can lend very little assistance to England. Tower of thousands of communists have found their way into positions of influence and power in every branch of industry, government and military division of the country. Canada is attempting to clean them out and the same effort should be made here without delay. Communists are in positions of power now that they could so cripple our industry and war preparations in a few days that it would take months of help to England, if indeed at all. The people of America are not awakened to the great dangers that threaten from within the strongly entrenched communists whose pledge and loyalty to the communistic cause comes first. Every Communist in the United States takes the following oath: "I pledge myself to the masses to defend the Soviet Union, the land of victory and Socialism. I pledged myself to remain at all times a vigilant firm defender of the Leninist side of the party, the only side that insures the triumph of Soviet power in the United States."

Russia is described here by very nature and policy she adhered to in the past war. She strips the countries she conquers and also sets up communist dictatorship. "Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey, to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?" She has robbed Manchuria, land, Germany, and the Baltic states and if war with Russia is delayed the American people will have to feed these people they will starve. Russia has taken off all the livestock she can from these countries. Among the nations engaged in this barbaric struggle, Russia alone the picture as described by prophet.

"After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter day thou shalt come into the land that is brought forth out of nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them. Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, and thou and all thy bands, and many people with thee . . . to take spoil and to take a prey, and to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, and dwell in the midst of the land . . . And thou shalt come up against my people as a cloud to cover the land: it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against MY land, that the heathen (Gentile nations) may know me when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes." In the war with Russia now shaping up, the final battle will be fought on the mountains of Israel as Russia with her

RUSSIA'S DEFEAT

gold, and move to take all the Near East. Russia will attempt to do this. But she will also fail not because she does not have the machinery or power but because of God's direct judgment. It will pay every reader of this message to study these chapters carefully. When the battle of Armageddon is fought the antichrist will be in possession of Palestine but the Northern alliance comes against the land as described in this prophecy, England (Tarshish) holds control. Before the seven years' covenant can be made with the Jews the antichrist must be in possession of the land. As the head of the European Federation of Nations of which England will be a part. When we study the cause of the Armageddon conflict we find that the Jews rebel against the image of the antichrist and cast it out of the temple and in accordance with the law. As a result of this rebellion all nations are gathered to the battle of Armageddon. There will be no division and they will not be gathered up one against the other as in the battle described in Ezekiel 38, but ALL nations will be gathered against Jerusalem. "For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall be taken, and half of the residue go into captivity, and the residue of the people shall be cut off from the city. Then shall the Lord go forth, and he shall fight against those nations, as he fought in the day of Unwaged, which is before Jerusalem the east." (Zech. 14:2-4a). When the battle of Armageddon is fought it will be in the day of Megiddo but this battle is fought on the mountains of the north part of the land given to Abraham and Isaac. In this battle God leads his army out of the north country against Palestine. "Thou shalt come from THY PLACE out of the north parts." While at the battle of Armageddon the nations gather from every point of the compass. Again it will be noticed that in this battle Gog comes against Palestine to "take a spoil, and take a prey," to obtain the wealth of the land, but at the battle of Armageddon the antichrist leading his forces against Jerusalem goes "forth with great army to destroy, and utterly to take away many," (the rebellion against Christ as He comes to Heaven on His white horse followed by His armies from the kings of the earth, and the armies gathered together to fight against him that sat on the horse, and against his armies. (Rev. 19:19) The two armies that both are the direct judgment of God, and the slain are numbered into the millions; and both instances the buzzards are called upon to eat the flesh of the slain. (compare Ezek. 39:17-18) It has been seen by eye witnesses in this war that the buzzards were in the sky and the wounded had been taken quickly from the battlefield or the birds would pick the flesh from the bones before they were dead. This was especially true in Mussolini's Ethiopian war.

There is nothing more certain in the world than that we are living in the very time of the end of this Christian dispensation. The "times of the Gentiles" are coming to close in the destruction of this civilization. This warning is being given out by the inventors of the atomic bomb. They may know nothing about the prophecies but they know that if this secret gets into the hands of the wrong leaders it will be used to further their selfish ends. In the hands of the antichrist all the nations of earth can soon be brought under his rule.

Behold I Am Against Thee, O Gog"

When God sets His face against a nation He may permit it to rise to a position of great power, and through pride and self-confidence lead that nation to its destruction. Hitler's Nazi Germany is a modern example. But why is God against Gog? The answer is simple. It is because Gog is against God and has gone beyond redemption. Communism hates God and has set itself to the task of destroying the very remembrance of God from the earth. The communist salute is the clinched fist raised in defiance of God. International communism has not changed in its purpose since its successful revolution in Russia. Every communist is a traitor to the country in which he lives and the nation that permits the Communist Party to function as a political power and vote representatives to its legislative bodies is committing national suicide. Mr. Rose, the Canadian M. P., did not become a traitor to his country while a member of Parliament, but he was a traitor the very day he became a communist. He is to be tried as a traitor and rightly so. Every communist member in democratic countries should be considered in the same light. They are Russia's Fifth Column, ready and anxious to turn their respective countries over to the U.S.S.R. and this they will attempt to do when the impending war with Russia breaks.

Russian art has prostituted famous Christian paintings to an unthinkable degree. The Last Supper has been degraded to a drunken brawl. The Lord is pictured running a still and passing the liquor around to his drunken disciples. Most blasphemous of all is the Russian cartoon of the Trinity. God, the Father, and Jesus Christ, the Son, are pictured as decrepit old men sitting on the clouds of heaven, while the Holy Spirit is shown as a crowing hen with half its feathers gone. God warns that "all sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they blaspheme: but he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation." (Mark 3:28-29) Not only can individuals commit the unpardonable sin, but nations can be guilty as well. Russia is such a nation and God will permit her to spread herself as Hitler did until the cup of her iniquity is full. She cannot escape the direct judgments of God.

Russia destroyed over 30,000,000 lives in that country during the revolution and the years following, and she continues to eliminate, by bullets and Siberian exile, all who oppose her communization of the conquered countries of the second world war. The life of every Christian is in danger from this monster of iniquity. So vicious is the hatred of Gog against God that he plots world revolution and the second world war, with Russia as our ally, has only given the communists the chance they wanted. They were permitted to become officers and to hold important positions and to openly teach communism to the boys. This will become our great problem when the clash of arms again sets the world aflame.

Germany also was destined to come under the wrath of God according to this prophecy. In her national humiliation she has already received a severe chastisement by the armies of the allies, but a second installment is due under her communistic leadership.

The great sin of Germany under the leadership of Hitler was her destruction of the Jews. Under government orders they were butchered, deported, conscripted into forced labor camps, placed in crowded ghettos, and subjected to a plan of systematic extermination. Many of their bodies were used to make soap. God had but one decree for Germany as a nation and nothing could change it. It is written in the covenant that God made to Abraham and also in the law. "I will . . . curse him that curseth thee," (Gen. 12:3) "I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary to thine adversaries." (Ex. 23:2) Not one nation in past history ever laid their hands heavily upon Israel and escaped the judgments of God. Since the end of the war it has been revealed that Germany systematically destroyed the lives of six million Jews. This is only partly atoned for by her defeat in the second world war but she will receive further retribution as an ally of Russia in the coming conflict.

Togarmah, a son of Gomer, who populated the territory close to Mt. Ararat known in modern times as Turkey, is also mentioned in the lineup with Russia and Germany and will be a partaker of God's wrath when this battle is fought. No country on earth has more cruelly destroyed life than the Turks in their atrocities upon the defenseless Armenian people. The stories of the blood-curdling Armenian massacres are written with a pen of iron and you may rest assured that a just God will avenge the crimes of the cruel murderers. The blood of Armenia cries unto God from the ground as did the blood of the righteous Abel.

Gog Makes Preparations

"Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them."

Before the second world war Russia boasted of having the largest army, air armada, cavalry, and military supplies of any nation in the world. During the war she was fortified by large shipments of materials, and money to the tune of many billions from America and the British Empire. Since the fall of Germany she has been laying up great stores of supplies by looting the countries she has occupied. The Congressional Committee saw great herds of stock being driven from the occupied countries into Russia. The Committee reported that the Russian armies looted the countries taking eighty percent of the grain and eighty-five percent of the industrial equipment. We have all read the accounts from American correspondents who finally succeeded in penetrating Manchuria. Russia literally stripped the country of its industrial plant machinery and also manufactured products. The stripping of the factories left the people without any means of livelihood. Everything that could be of value to the Russian preparation for the battle described in Ezekiel has been taken from the occupied areas. The many headlines in the newspapers tell the story and assist us in identifying Gog. Here are a few of many hundreds that filled the papers. "While Reds rob and sack China, U. S. aids Nation," "Red's Strip Rail Lines to Mukden even of Seats," "Reds Loot His Plant; Chinese gets Receipt," "Mukden Industrial Area Now Is Desolate."

In the above verse Gog is told to prepare for herself and for those who are assembled unto her. No other nation but Russia fits the picture given us in Ezekiel, and we have advanced far on the road toward this inevitable struggle. We have witnessed in Europe's great struggle the switching of leadership from Hitler to Stalin. Gog has arisen to be the great force in Europe and will have to be reckoned with in the near future. It would be well for us to recall the statement of former Vice President Wallace when he addressed a university in Ohio. This statement is in line with the Ezekiel prophecy. He said, "Unless the Western democracies and Russia come to a satisfactory understanding before this war ends, I very much fear that World War Number 3 will be inevitable. Without a close and trusting understanding between Russia and the United States there is a grave possibility of Russia and Germany sooner or later making common cause." Madame Chiang Kai-Shek while in America expressed her fears that "there may be a lot of

The destruction of Russia not be the end of earth's trouble for Europe will fall into the hands of the anti-Christ by forming the United States of Europe. These great events of end-time prophecy is shaping for fulfillment. The Revelation of John will be literally fulfilled. The rapture of the saints at the coming of Jesus is ever nearing and every one who knows the truth and loves God and the souls of men should bend every effort to get the truth out of the people and prepare for a mighty revival and harvest of souls as a result.
