FINDS AIRPLANE

DOOR WINS $200

Don Fellers of Angola, Ind.,

is $200 richer because he found a door that dropped from an American Airlines DC-6 in American Airlines immediately offered $100 reward to any one who found the door, then the door was wanted for study

to determine why it broke while herding cattle on his uncle's farm four miles north

The incident reminds us of

The Lord Jesus said: "I am

another Door, which when found yields treasure worth in-the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture." (John 10:9).

died for our sins and rose again,

He has been the Door to salvation, to the forgiveness of sins, to eternal life, and to Heaven itself. For "there is none other name under heaven

given among men, whereby we must be saved." (Acts 4:12).

Ever since the Lord Jesus

finitely more than $200!

Don Fellers found the door

An airlines spokesman said raised it to $200.

of Angola.

The Baptist Examiner Foreign Missionaries Such As This? By OSWALD J. SMITH. Litt. D.

MISSIONARY

Paid Girculation In All States and In Many Foreign Gountries

"To the law and to the testimony; if they speak not according to this word it is because there is no light in them."-Isaiah 8:20.

VOL. 17, NO. 9

RUSSELL, KENTUCKY, MARCH 31, 1951

WHOLE NUMBER 636

What Does The Bible Say About Favoritism?

By ROY MASON Tampa, Florida

We wish to deal with an exceedingly practical and important subject-namely our attitude as a church towards different people.

First of all, let us realize that "God is no respecter of per-(See Acts 10:34). And the same sentiment is expressed in other passages. God is not impressed by wealth, color or position. To Him a man is a man, regardless. Likewise we should take lessons from His example in this regard.

What Should Our Attitude, As Church People, Be Towards Others?

1. To the stranger and visitor who comes we should be cordial and friendly. And Proverbs 18:

ONCE GREAT JOCKEY

24 is suggestive just here. What about YOUR attitude? Do you go into a huddle with a little bunch of your friends after the services, and pay no attention to others? Do you pay attention to just a few of the "old timers" and none to newer members, leaving them to get acquainted as best they can? Do you make it a practice to go off home without ever greeting anybody-leaving that for the pastor or deasons or somebody else to do? Can you call the names of most of those who have come into the church since you have been a member, and if not, why not?

An attitude of friendliness means much in a church. Many a stranger is lonely and needs a kindly word. Why shouldn't we have one of the friendliest churches anywhere? It doesn't cost anything to be friendly with people who come, and it certainly pays rich dividends.

2. The new member shouldn't have to wait and wait for "seniority rights" before being used. Let us realize that when people join, they have all rights We are not and privileges. running a railroad with a seniority system. We learned the other day of a church that split on this issue. The town began to grow-new members came into the church, but a ruling clique were unwilling for new members to hold any places of leadership. Folk got tired of this and the result was a split. We know of a big church in Texas that split in the same way. Any church - and any group of members ought to welcome new blood. It is easy to

(Continued on page four)

Jesus Proved In The Bible That It Is Scriptural To Hold Religious Debates

By ISAAC J. SMITH

The Meaning Of Sacrifice

Do you know the meaning of Sacrifice? I will never forget a little girl by the name of Grace. She was saved in Dale

Presbyterian Church when I was in my twenties. Her heart

Was in India. One day her mother told her she was going to buy her a new topcoat. The one

she was wearing was threadbare. She had worn it for six years. But Grace begged her mother to give her the money,

Stating that she could wear her old coat for one more winter.

Her mother did so, and Grace

sent the money to her mission-

Before I left Dale, Grace was taken ill. On her death-bed

Were, and send whatever she got, to India. The mother, with tears in her eyes, promised. I

Would like to be standing some-

Where near the throne when Grace gets her reward. Her hart was in India and her oney followed her heart, regardless of the sacrifice. Do you, my friend, know anything about that kind of sacrifice?

by while she made her mother promise to eneration sell all her clothes, such as they aries in India.

o believe

Babylo

rines and now out eft.

man Ca

ed Baby

7 and he

ne othe

ediatrix

w utterly

10 loves

ivals, and

we con

Christ

prophets

and John

Christ's

down

ions til

his hush

policy in g church

ce about

ie false

onsibility

olatries?

re of this

what shall ofess the

o follow

f Christ

Can you

nd right

d shame

d pagair

ors, whi

the Mo

e holding other?

say

e Chris

at would

s say

n father

if they ought for ificed up

ylon the said long

my peo

have fel

and the plagues. Rev. 18:4

ans and have not festivals

ted then

oly plac

em there

em well

hem and bosom5

o God's

le's festi

thers up

uring out y around iniquity on flow

d-bough

nt of he

hand

churche

M

rism

TS"

50 mine

JCKY

ations

come tell what

by

ome?

Bapti

Condensed from "Tabernacle Baptist Church Bulletin."

Debates in the religious world are usually objected to on the grounds that they cause bad fling and do harm. But if fiducted strictly by Hedges' other good rules of logic and the disputants are gentlemen, they can be of great good, con-Verting the deceived and educating the saved in Biblical truth. I've never heard a person object to debating in our hational or state legislatures on grounds that it stirs bad feeling! How democratic would Our legislatures be without the free speech of debating? If the brinciple of debating be wrong the religious world, would it also be in our legislative bodies, or even in a local church when an issue arises, as in Acts

Some object on the grounds of their assumption that the Bible condemns it. In Isa. 58:4; Rom. 1:29; and II Cor. 12:20, debru in the low debating or striving in the low of carnal dissension is The Revised Vernned. translates the word as strife." This is the correct translation. If not, we would find God's Word contradicting This is the correct where it commands and examples debating. We accept Webster's definition: "Discussion for elucidating truth; arguents or reasoning, especially between those of diametrical ws: dispute, controversy; as, debates in Parliament or in ongress." In Prov. 25:9 it is pressly taught in the Bible, and the Revised Version also here employs the word "de-bate", as does the King James "Debate thy cause with thy neighbor himself, and sclose nother." not the secret of the Holy Scriptures for us to follow.

EXAMPLES are replete in

In Matt. 15:1-8, Christ Himself debates with the Pharisees about the tradition of the elders and the commandments of God. Then in Matt. 22:15 we find Jesus debating with the Pharisees as to whether it was lawful to pay tribute to Ceasar. Jesus won! Again, in Mk. 11: 30, Christ, is debating with the "Chief priests, Scribes and Elders" about the authority of John's baptism. One rhetori-cal, theological question won for Christ, permanently closing their mouths. Again, in Luke 20:27-40, our Lord defends the doctrine of the resurrection against the Sadducees. When Jesus showed them that they had "erred, not knowing the Scriptures neither the power of God," He won, wresting from them this admission; "Master (Continued on page four)

DIES ALONE IN ALLEY

According to International News Service, the body of Paul Neal, one-time top jockey, was found in an ice-crusted Chicago alley at the end of his last and longest losing streak.

It was a far cry from the years - more than fifteen of them - when Neal drove to the track in flashy cars and rode to the cheers of thousands of fans and well-wishers.

In 1929 the jockey — then a teenager just a year out of grammar school-rode twentysix winning horses in the first 27 days of the Washington park meeting in Chicago. In the seasons that followed, he earned up to $15,000 a year as a con-

At 32, his luck, as they say, (Continued on page four)

MUSED UNCLE MOSE

Dey's a lot o' fo'ks dat calls deselves chu'ch membahs, but actual' dey is jes' chu'ch prob-

How Blood Redemption Brings New Life From God To Dying Sinners

By W. B. CURNUTTE Louisa, Kentucky

Heb. 9:22. Without the shedding of blood there is no remission. You cannot have natural life or spiritual life without blood. Lev. 17:10,11. For the life of the flesh is in the blood. For proof, you set eggs from hens where there is no rooster and they will not hatch, for there is no blood life there. The female furnishes the body, and the male the blood life.

Gen. 2:7. Adam was the first man. Gen. 2:15. God put him in the Garden of Eden to keep it. Gen. 2:17. God gave Adam his orders and told him if he disobeyed he would die. Gen. 3:6. He disobeyed. He ate of the forbidden fruit. He died spiritually, for spiritual death is separation from God. So Adam's life was contaminated by sin. Acts 17:26. "And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth." Adam's blood flows through our veins. That is why we are born sin-

Do any babies go to Hell? No. Rom. 4:15. For where no law is, there is no transgression. John 1:29. "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world!" Christ died for Adam's sin. That atones for babies and those not accountable; but when we come to the years of accountability, there are the Ten Commandments, God's Holy Law, and when we break one we go to Hell for our own sins, unless it is paid for, and we have nothing to pay for them. It takes pure blood to pay the debt and we do not have it. 1 John 1:7. "The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." Gal. 4:4. "But when the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts." Here we receive the same spirit life that Christ has.

Luke 1:26-35. "And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou art highly favored, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found

(Continued on page four)

The First Baptist Pulpit

THE BIBLE DOCTRINE OF ELECTION

By ELD. C. D. COLE Mortons Gap, Kentucky

ELECTION!-what a hated What a despised doctrine! What a neglected truth even by many who profess to believe it. There are many who experience a feeling of repulsion at the very mention of this Bible-revealed, God-honoring, and man-humbling truth. Spurgeon said, "There seems to be an inveterate prejudice in the human mind against this doctrine, and although most other doctrines will be received by professing Christians, some with caution, others with pleasure, yet this one seems to be most frequently disregarded and discarded." If such were true in Spurgeon's day how much more so in this our day. Concerning this doctrine there is an alarming departure from the faith of our Baptist fathers. Touching this article of our faith Baptists have come to a day when they have a Calvinistic creed and an Arminian

But there are some who love the doctrine of ELECTION. To of human redemption to rest upon. They love it enough to preach it in the face of criticism and persecution. They will surrender their pulpits rather than be silenced on this precious tenet of the once delivered faith. But all who love the doctrine were once haters of it, therefore, they have nothing in which to take pride. Every man by nature is an Arminian. It takes the regenerating work of the Holy Spirit and the Word

them election is the foundation

dug deep for the other doctrines

(Continued on page two)

THE BAPTIST EXAMINER held up to ridicule and sport. JOHN R. GILPIN - EDITOR

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE (Domestic and Foreign)
One Year in Advance_____

Send Remittance to Russell, Ky.

Editorial Department, RUSSELL, KENTUCKY, where communications should be sent for publication.

Entered as second-class matter May 31, 1941, in the post office at Russell, Ky., under the act of March 3, 1879.

Paid circulation in every state and many foreign countries.

Subscriptions are stopped at expira-tion unless renewed or special arrange-ments are made for their continuation.

Election

(Continued from page one) of God, taught by the Holy Spirit, to cause a man to love the doctrine of election. How deeply important that believers should be learners. To do this we must acknowledge the superior wisdom of God whose thoughts are not as our thoughts. The Bible was given to correct our thinking. Repentance is a change of mind resulting in a change of thinking. We are not to come to the Bible as critics; the Bible is to critise us. We cannot come to the Bible infallibly, but by grace we can come humbly. May grace be given to every writer and reader that we may have the right attitude of heart before God. The surest evidence of a saved state is to have the right attitude towards the Word of God. Dear reader, let the writer warn you against "poking fun" at any doctrine of the Bible. The doctrines of grace have found expression in two systems of theology commonly known as Calvinism and Arminianism. These two systems were not named for their founders, but for the men who popularized them. The system of truth known as Calvinism was preached by Augustine at an earlier date, and before Augustine by Christ and the Apostles, being especially emphasized by the apostle Paul. The system of error known as Arminianism was proclaimed by Pelagius in the fifth century. Between these two there is no middle position; every man is either one or the other in his religious thinking. Some try to mix the two but this is not straight thinking. To say that we are neither Calvinistic nor Arminian is to evade the issue. Paulinism is represented by either Calvinism or Arminianism. The true system is based upon the truth of man's inherent and total depravity; the false system is based upon the Romish dogma of free-will.

Some General Remarks To Disarm Prejudice

There is no doctrine so grossly misrepresented. Bro. A. S. Pettie's complaint against the enemies of total depravity is equally applicable here, when "From hostile lips a fair and correct statement of the doctrine is never heard." The treatment the doctrine of election receives from the hands of its enemies is very much like that received by the primitive Christians from pagan Roman Emperors. The ancient Christians were often clothed in the skins of slain animals and then subjected to attack by ferocious wild beasts. So the doctrine of election is clothed in an ugly garb and

We will now try to strip this glorious truth of its false and vicious garment with which enemy hands have robed it, and put upon it the garments of holiness and wisdom.

- 1. Election is not salvation but is unto salvation. "What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election (elect) hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded" (Rom. 11:7). "God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation" (2 Thess. 2: 13). Now then, if the elect obtain salvation, and if election is to salvation, election must precede salvation. Men are saved when they believe on Christ not when they are elected. Roosevelt was not president when he was elected, but when he was inaugurated. There was not only an election to, but an induction into the office. God's elect are inducted into the position of saintship by the effectual call, (the quickening work of the Holy Spirit) through which they become believers in the Gospel. See I Cor. 1:29; 2 Thess. 2:13,14.
- 2. Election is not the cause of anybody going to hell, for election is unto salvation. Neither is non-election responsible for the damnation of sinners. SIN is the thing that sends men to hell, and all men are sinners by nature and practice -sinners altogether apart from election and non-election. It does not follow that because election is unto salvation that non-election is unto damnation. SIN is the damning element in human life. ELECTION HARMS NOBODY.
- 3. Election belongs to the system of grace. In Paul's day there was a remnant among the Jews who were saved according to the election of grace. (Rom. 11:5). The attitude of men towards election is the acid test of their belief in grace. Those who oppose election cannot consistently claim to believe in salvation by grace. This is seen in the creeds of Christendom. Those denominations that believe in salvation by works have no place for the doctrine of election in their confessions of faith; those that believe in salvation by grace, apart from human merit, have not failed to include election in their written creed. One group is headed by the Roman Catholics, the other group is headed by the Baptists.
- 4. Election does not prevent the salvation of anybody who wants to be saved. But the distinction needs to be made between a mere desire to escape hell and the desire to be saved from sin. The desire to be saved from hell is a natural desire-nobody wants to burn. The desire to be saved from sin is a spiritual desire resulting from the convicting work of the Holy Spirit. And God's electing grace is the very mother of this desire. To represent election by saying that God has spread the Gospel feast, and a man comes to the table hungering for the bread of life; but God says "No, this is not for you, you are not one of my elect," is to misrepresent the holy doctrine. Here is the truth: -God has spread the feast but the fact is nobody wants to come to the table. "They all with one consent began to make excuse." God knew just how fallen nature would act, and He took no chance on His table being filled, so, He tells His servant to go out and compel them to come. See Luke 14:23. Were it not for the redemptive work of Christ there would be no Gospel feast; were it not for the compelling work of the Holy Spirit there would be no guests at the table. A mere invitation brings nobody to the table.

5: Election means that the destiny of men is in the hands of God. Many of us have regarded as an axiom the statement that every man's destiny is in his own hands. But this is to deny the whole tenor of Scripture. At no time is the destiny of the saint in his own hands, either before or after he is saved. Was my destiny in my own hands before I was saved? If so, I regenerated myself: I resurrected, by my own power, myself out of a state of sin and death; I am my own benefactor and have nobody to thank but myself for being alive and saved. Perish such a thought! By the grace of God I am what I am. Read John 1:13; Ephesians 2:1-10; 2 Tim. 1:9; James 1:18.

Is my destiny in my own hands now? Then, I will either keep myself saved or I will lose my salvation. But the Bible says we are kept by the power of God through faith. I Peter 1:15; Psa. 37:28; John 10:27-29; Phil. 1:6; Heb. 13:5. If my destiny is not safe in my own hands after I am saved then how could it be thought to be safe in my own hands before my conversion?

The saint dies, his body is consigned to the grave and becomes a dust-heap. Is his destiny in his own hands then? If so, what hope has he of ever coming out of the grave with an immortal / and incorruptible body? None at all if his destiny is in his own hands.

Such a theory, that the destiny of the saint is or ever has been in his own hands, reverses the very laws of nature and implies that water can rise above the level of its source; that man can lift himself into the attic by his boot-straps; that the Ethiopian can change his color, and the leopard can remove his spots; that death can beget life; that evolution is true and God is a liar. The theory that one's destiny is in his own hands begets self-confidence and selfrighteousness: the belief that destiny is in the hands of God SELF-ABNEGATION AND FAITH IN GOD.

- 6. Election stands or falls with the doctrine of God's sovereignty and man's depravity. If God is sovereign and man is depraved, then it follows as a natural consequence, that some will be saved, or none will be saved, or all will be saved. The practical results of election are that some, yea many, will be saved. Election is not a plan to save a mere handful of folk. Christ gave Himself a ransom for many. See Matt. 20:28; Rev. 5:9; 19. God's sovereignty involves His pleasure (John 5:21; Matt. 11:25-27); His power (Job 23:13; Jer. 32:17; Matt. 19:26); and His mercy (Rom. 9:18).
- 7. The elect are manifested in repentance and laith works. These graces, being Godwrought in man, are not the cause but the evidences of election. See I Thess. 1:3-10: 2 Pet. 1:5-10; Phil. 2:12-13; Luke 18: 7. The man who doesn't pray, who has not repented of his sins and trusted Christ, and who does not engage in good works has no right to claim that he is one of God's elect.

Some False Views Examined And Refuted

Many professing Christians really have no view of election. They have not given it enough thought and study to even have any opinion about it. Many have erroneous views. We shall notice some of them.

1. The view that men are elected when they believe. This view is easily refuted for it is contrary to both common sense and Scripture. Election is to salvation, and therefore, must precede salvation. It is nonsense to talk about electing a man to something he already The man has salvation has. when he believes and hence election at that point would not be necessary. ELECTION TOOK PLACE IN ETERNITY; SAL-VATION TAKES PLACE WHEN THE SINNER BE-LIEVES.

- 2. The view that election pertains only to the Jews. This view robs Gentiles of the comfort of Rom. 8:28-39. Moreover, Paul, who was an apostle to the Gentiles, says that he endured all things for the elect's sakes that they might obtain salvation (2 Tim. 2:10).
- 3. The view that election took place in eternity, but that it was in view of foreseen repentance and faith. According to this view, God, in eternity, looked down through the ages and saw who would repent and believe and those who He foresaw would repent and believe were elected to salvation. This view is correct in only one point, namely, that election took place in eternity. It is wrong in that it makes the ground of election to be something in the sinner rather than something in God. Read Eph. 1:4-6 where election and predestination are said to be "According to the good pleasure of his will" and "To the praise of the glory of his grace." This view though the popular one with the majority of Baptists today, is open to many objections.
- (1) It denies what the Bible says about man's condition by nature. The Bible does not describe the natural man as having faith (I Cor. 2:14; John Both repentance and faith are gifts of God, and God did not see these graces in any sinner apart from His purpose to give them. "Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins" (Acts 5:13). "When they heard these things they held their peace, and glorified God, saying Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life" (Acts 11:18). "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; If God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledgment of the truth." (2 Tim. 2:25). Read also Eph. 2:8-10; I Cor. 3:5 Election was not because of foreseen faith, but because of foreseen unbelief. It is not the election of God's faithful ones, but the faith of God's elect, if we are to keep to Scriptural words (Titus 1:1).
- (2) It makes the human race differ by nature, whereas, the Bible says, we are all by nature the children of wrath and all clay of the same lump. Eph. 2: 3; Rom. 9:21. Men are made to differ in the new birth. John
- (3) It perverts the Scriptural meaning of the word "fore-knowledge." The word as used in the Bible means more than foreknowledge about persons. It is the foreknowledge of persons. In Rom. 8:29-30 the foreknown are predestinated to the image of Christ, and are called, justified, and glorified. In I Peter 1:2 the word for "foreknowledge" is the same as "foreordain" in the 20th verse of the same chapter, where the meaning cannot be "foreknowledge" about Christ. God's foreknowledge about persons is without limitations; whereas, His foreknowledge of persons is limited to those who are actually save and glorified.

(Cor

wer

rought

God

race, the

We mus

boots an

versalist

on who

and I w

Whom I

whom H

whom F

(Rom. 9

·Ther

do t

an Which sa

(4) It is open to the stronge objection that can be mad the ete Divine against the Bible view. It often asked, "If certain me death are elected and saved, the many Rev. 1 what is the use to preach those who are not elected 1:9. With equal propriety we migh NAL! ask, "If God knows who is go ing to repent and believe, the why preach to those who at TING cording to His foreknowledg ground will not repent and believe sinner? Will some repent and believ have b whom He foreknew would no none g repent and believe? If so, H cause 1 foreknew a lie. Chosen

Right here is the weaknes not be of much of modern missions. is based upon sympathy for the seen, is lost rather than obedience to seen re God's command. The inspiration is tion of missions is made to res and fa upon the practical results these g missionary endeavor rathe chose i than upon the delight of doin He fore God's will. It is the principl pent an of doing a thing because the is to at results are satisfactory to us. infinite

If we are faithful, God is the pre pleased with our efforts whe cree t there are no results. Ponder tomorre Cor. 2:15-16. The elect prio that it to their conversion are know tor show only to God. We are to pread of mar the gospel to every creature be that it cause He has commanded it. He ima will take care of the results. Clenge Isa. 55:11; I Cor. 3:5-6; Joh Rese 6:37-45. It is ours to witnest it is His to make our witnessim effective.

The Doctrine Defined, Explained And Proved

What is election as the ter Sometin is used in the Bible? Election loud an means a choice—to select from so man among—to single out—to tak in Bapt one and leave another. If the old-fast are a dozen apples in a baske faith a are a dozen apples in a bash and I take all of them there he Gill, Sp been no choice; but if I take pendlete seven and leave five there has roll, Jet a host of been a choice. Election, taught in the Bible, means to the court of the children of men. among the children of men. I bosition the beginning God 'set History choice upon certain individual finst whom He gave to His Son, at the for whom Christ died as the aptists substitute, who in time hear the ism, this Gospel and believe in Christ thas had life everlasting. Let us ampliff the last by raising three very pertinent adopted questions: -

1. WHO DOES THE ELEC OUR TING? Who chooses the person to be saved? If men are chose UMITS to salvation, as the Scripture affirm, who does the choosing tic for There must be a selection lection There must be a selection and pount universalism. The language and po Scripture seems peculiarly de God's no finite in reply to this question believer Mark 13: 20 speaks of Mark 13: 20 speaks of he ELECTE cause a rendered in our version, "The doing vi elect's sake whom he had thus chosen." The word election we believe a associated with God, not will like a choose the collection of the collection associated with God, not will like a choose the collection of the collection o associated with God, not we a man. God is the CHOOSE in 1:7 His people are the CHOSEN in the The this points self-evice and grace is the source. Negro theology, that God vot for us, the Devil votes again us, and that we cast the decidence ing ballot is entirely outside the and doe pale of Scripture teaching, and the wer is pale of Scripture teaching, no the Lore is almost too ridiculous to no the Lore is almost too ridiculous to ond Lord tice. Read John 15:16; 2 The ond, if I every r 2:13; Eph. 1:4.

2. WHEN WAS THE ELEC we mercy o TING DONE? For answer are shut up to the Scripture But the BIBLE answers with sunlight clearness. In Eph. 4 we read that "He chose us Him before the foundation the world." The expression "before the foundation of the world" is found in John 17:2 where it speaks of the Fathe eternal love for the Son, and I Peter 1:20, where it refers

(Continued on page three)

THE BAPTIST EXAMINER PAGE TWO MARCH 31, 1951

Election

ially save

e stronge

who is g

lieve, the

If so,

issions.

Explaine

(Continued from page two) be mad the eternal determination of the It Divine mind concerning the rtain me death of Christ. There are aved, the many similar expressions. preach Rev. 13:8; 2 Thess. 2:13; 2 Tim. elected! 1:9. ELECTION IS ETERwe migh NAL!

3. WHY WAS THE ELEC-TING DONE? Was it on the e who ac knowledg ground of something good in the sinner? Then nobody would nd believ have been elected for there is would no none good. Holiness is not the cause but the effect of election. Chosen that we should be holy weaknes not because we were holy. Eph. 1:4. Nor, as we have already hy for the seen, is election in view of foreedience seen repentance and faith. Elece inspiration is the cause of repentance ade to res and faith and not the effect of results these graces. To say that God rathe chose men to salvation because t of doin He foresaw that they would reprincip pent and believe and be saved cause this to attribute foolishness to the y to us. infinitely wise God. It is as if God is the president should issue a deorts whe cree that the sun must rise Ponder tomorrow because he foresees elect prio that it will rise: or as if a sculpire know for should choose a certain piece to pread of marble because he foresaw eature be that it would make itself into ded it. I the image he wanted. We chalcesults. 5-6; Joh hese questions and get his o witner Wers from the Scriptures. witnessim

Some Objections Considered And Answered

Many are the objections Orought against this doctrine. the teri Sometimes the objectors are Election loud and furious. Alas! that elect from so many of these objectors are there has a did Bunyan, Fuller, talk in Spurgeon, Boyce, Broadus, if I talk in Baptist ranks. To preach this day and the saith as did Bunyan, Fuller, there has bendleten Graves Jarrell, Carif I tak Pendleton, Graves, Jarrell, Carthere he roll, Jeter, Boyce Taylor and a of other representative neans the men of our denomination is to oice from court the bitterest kind of opposition. John Wesley himself men. Hosition. John Wesley Marsher words 'set History said harsher words adividual plinst this blessed tenet of our Son, and the than do some so-called as the saptists of today. Arminiane hear the ism, that offspring of popery, Christ thas had an abnormal growth in is amplifithe last decade or two as the pertinent adopted child of a large group of Baptists.

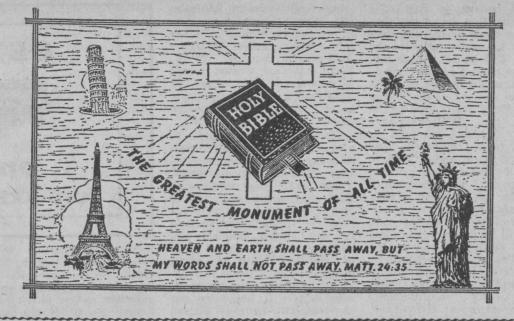

THE ELECTORY OF THAT OF THAT VIEW OF ELECTION OF THE CONTROL OF TH

Scripture Right here we criticise the crichoosing the for he who makes this oblection limits both God's mercy nguage o and liarly de God's mercy is limited to the question believer, and to this we agree; of the but he denies that God can ELECTED cause a man to believe without ion, "The doing violence to the man's will, half and thus he limits God's power. he ha we thus he limits God is able to not will sive a man a sound mind (2) not will have a man a sound find the choose in the day of His power. At the choose point we must face two God vote if evident propositions. First, God von a evident propositions. First, es again God is trying to save every the decid member of Adam's fallen race, and does not succeed, then His ching, an bower is limited and He is not us to no the Lord God Almighty. Secus to und God Almignty. See the state of the every member of the fallen race, then His mercy is limited. We must of necessity limit His IE ELEC hercy or His power, or go over boots and baggage to the Uni-Scripture versalist's position. But, before vers wil do that, let us go "to the nose us which says, "I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and whom I will have mercy, and to the testimony," xpression on on of the and I will have compassion on ohn 17:2 whom I will have compassion e Fathel Therefore hath He mercy on whom He will have mercy and on, and whom He will He hardeneth" refers three) (Rom. 9:15-18). It needs to be said for the comfort and hope of great sinners, that God's mercy is not limited by the natural condition of the sinner. All sinners are dead until God makes them alive. He is able to take away the heart of stone. No man is too great a sinner to be saved. We can pray for the salvation of the chief of sinners with the assurance that God can if He will. "The King's heart is in the hands of the Lord as the river of water: He turneth it whithersoever He will" (Prov. 21:1). We rejoice to say with Jeremiah that there is nothing too hard for God. We can pray for the salvation of our loved ones with the feeling of the leper, when he said, "Lord, if thou wilt thou canst make me clean" (Matt. 8:2). When Robert Morrison was about to go to China, he was asked by an incredulous American if he thought he could make any impression on those Chinese. His curt reply was, "No, but I think God can," This should ever be our confidence and hope when we stand before sinners and preach to them "CHRIST AND HIM CRUCIFIED."

nswer

n Eph.

dation

2. ANOTHER OBJECTION TO ELECTION IS THAT IT MAKES GOD UNJUST.

This objection betrays a bad heart. It would obligate the CREATOR to the CREATURE. It makes salvation a divine obligation. It denies the right of the potter over the clay of the same lump to make one vessel to honor and another to dishonor. By the same parity of reasoning it makes the governor of a sovereign state unjust when he pardons one or more men, unless he empties the prison and turns all the prisoners loose. Our view of election is in harmony with what even the Arminians allow to be proper and just for a human governor. All can see that a governor, by pardoning some men, does not harm others, who are not pardoned. Those who are not pardoned are not in prison because the governor refused them a pardon but because they were guilty of a crime against the Isn't God to be allowed as much sovereignty as the governor of a state? Salvation, like a pardon, is something that is not deserved. If it were deserved, then God would be unjust if He did not bestow it upon all men.

Salvation is not a matter of justice but of mercy. It wasn't the attribute of justice that led God to provide salvation but the attribute of mercy. Justice is simply each man getting what he deserves. Those who go to hell will have nobody to blame but themselves, while those who go to heaven will have nobody to praise but God. Read Rom. 9:22-23.

3. IT IS AGAIN OBJECTED THAT OUR VIEW OF ELEC-TION IS AGAINST THE DOC-TRINE OF WHOSOEVER WILL."

But the objector is wrong again. Our view explains and supports the doctrine of "WHO SOEVER WILL." Without election the invitation to "WHOSO-EVER WILL" would go unheeded. The Bible doctrine of WHOSOEVER WILL" does not imply the freedom or ability of the human will to do good. The human will is free, but its freedom is within the limits of fallen human nature. It is free like water; water is free to run down hill. It is free like the vulture; the vulture is free to eat carrion, for that is its nature, but it would starve to death in a wheat field. It is not the buzzard's nature to eat clean food; it feeds upon the carcasses of the dead. So sinners starve to death in the presence of the bread of life. Our Lord said to some sinners, who were in His very presence "Ye will not come unto me that ye might have life" (John 5:40). It is not natural for a sinner to trust in Christ. Salvation through trust in a crucified Christ is a stumbling block to the Jew and foolishness to the Greek; it is only the called, both Jews and Greeks, who trust it as the wisdom and power of God. See I Cor. 1:23-24.

Here is a physical corpse. Is it free to get up and walk around? In one sense, yes. It is not bound by fetters. There is no external restraint. But, in another sense, that corpse is not free. It is hindered by its natural condition. It is its nature to decompose and go back to dust. It is not the nature of death to stir about. Here is a spiritual corpse-a man dead in trespasses and sins. Is the man free to repent and believe and do good works? Yes, in one There are no external restraints. God does not prevent but offers inducements through His holy Word. But the corpse is hindered by its own nature. There must be the miracle of the new birth, for except a man be born from above he cannot see or enter into the kingdom of God. John

It is painful to some of us to see our brethren forsake the faith of our Baptist forbearers at this point and join the ranks of the Roman Catholics and other Arminians. If anyone doubts this charge let him read the article of faith adopted by the Catholics at the council of Trent (1563). I quote their statement on the freedom of the human will-"If anyone shall affirm that since the fall of Adam man's free-will is lost, let him be accursed." But alas, in this day, such a spirit is not confined to the Roman Catholics. Horatius Bonar makes the following quotation from John Calvin:-

"The Papist theologians have distinction current among themselves that God does not elect men according to their works which are in them but that He chooses them that He foresees will be believers." Ah, the real trouble with the objector is not election; it is something else. His real objective is to total depravity or human inability to do good. I can do no better here than to quote from Percy W. Heward of London, England. He says, "It seems to me that the majority of objections to God's sovereign grace, to God's electing love, are actually objections to something else, namely objections to the fact that man is ruined. If you probe beneath the surface you will find that very few object to election. Why should they? Election harms no one. How can the picking of a man out of doom harm anyone else? The real objection at the present day is not to election, though that word is made the catchword of sad controversy—the real objection is to that fact which is revealed in Psa. 51, that we are shapen in iniquity, that we are born sinners by nature, dead in sins, until, as we read concerning Paul in Gal. 1, "It pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb and called me by His grace to reveal His Son in me . . . " Ah, beloved friends, we deserve nothing but doom. Acknowledge this and election is the only hope. Acknowledge that we are poor lost sinners, dead in trespasses and sins, only evil continually; acknowledge that there is in man no natural spark to be fanned into a flame but that believers are born again of incorruptible seed which the Lord places; acknowledge that if anyone is in Christ that there is a new creation, for we are His workmanship, having been created in Christ Jesus; — and election must be at once recognized."

Every real believer on his knees subscribes to our view of election. You cannot pray ascribing some credit to self. Sovereign grace will come out in prayer though it may be left off the platform. No saved man will get down on his knees before God and claim that he made himself to differ from others who are not saved, but with Paul he says, "By the grace of God I am what I am." And in praying for the lost we supplicate God to convict and convert them. We do not depend upon the freedom of their wills but beg God to make them willing to come to Christ, knowing that when they come to Christ He will not cast them out. See John 6:37.

A Methodist minister once went to hear a Presbyterian minister preach. After the sermon, the Methodist said to the Presbyterian, "That was a pretty good Arminian sermon you preached today." replied the Presbyterian, "We Presbyterians are pretty good Arminians when we preach and you Methodists are pretty good Calvinists when you pray." MORE TRUTH THAN POE-TRY HERE!!!

4. IT IS ALSO OBJECTED THAT OUR VIEW OF ELECTION IS A NEW DOCTRINE AMONG MISSIONARY BAP-

The fact is that it is so oldfashioned that it has about gone out of fashion. The ignorance betrayed in such a claim is indeed pitiable. In refutation we resort to two sources of information (1) Confessions of faith; (2) Statements of representative preachers and writers.

(a) CONFESSIONS OF FAITH

The Paterines, according to W. A. Jarrell, appealed to the text in the 9th of Romans, in proof of the doctrines of UN-CONDITIONAL ELECTION. See Jarrell's history, page 139. The Paterines were ancient progenitors of the Baptists.

The Waldenses, through whom Baptist church succession must be traced, declared themselves as follows: saves from corruption and damnation those whom He has chosen from the foundation of the world, not from any disposition, faith or holiness that He foresaw in them, but His mere mercy in Christ Jesus His Son, passing by all the rest according to the irreprehensible reason of His own free-will and justice." THE DATE OF THIS THE DATE OF THIS CONFESSION WAS 1120!!!

The London Confession (1689) and the Philadelphia Confession (1742) read as follows: "By the decree of God, for the manifestation of His glory, some men and angels are predestined or foreordained to ETERNAL LIFE through Jesus Christ, to the praise of His glorious grace; others being left to act in their sins to their just condemnation, to the praise of His glorious justice."

The New Hampshire Confession (Article 9): "We believe that election is the eternal purpose of God according to which He graciously regenerates, sanctifies and saves sinners; that being perfectly consistent with the free-agency of man, it conprehends all the means in connection with the end; that it is a most glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, being infinitely free, wise, holy and unchangeable; that it utterly excludes boasting and promotes humility, love, prayer, praise, trust in God, and active imitation of His free mercy; that it encourages the use of means in the highest degree; that it may be ascertained by its effects in all who truly believe the Gospel; that is the foundation of Christian assurance; and that to ascertain it with regard to ourselves demands and deserves the utmost dilligence."

(b) REPRESENTATIVE PRE-ACHERS AND WRITERS!

John A. Broadus, former president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary: "From the divine side, we see that the Scriptures teach an eternal election of men to eternal life simply out of God's good pleas-

A. H. Strong, former presi-(Continued on page four)

THE BAPTIST EXAMINER PAGE THREE MARCH 31, 1951

Election

(Continued from page three) dent of Rochester Theological "Election is the Seminary: eternal act of God, by which in His sovereign pleasure, and on account of no foreseen merit in them, He chooses certain of the number of sinful men to be recipients of the special grace of His Spirit and so to be made voluntary partakers of Christ's salvation."

B. H. Carroll, founder and first president of the South-western Baptist Seminary: "Every one that God chose in Christ is drawn by the Spirit to Christ. Every one predestined is called by the Spirit in time, and justified in time, and will be glorified when the Lord comes." Commentary on Romans, page 192.

J. P. Boyce, founder and first president of Southern Baptist "God, of His own Seminary: purpose, has from eternity determined to save a definite number of mankind as individuals, not for or because of any merit or works of theirs, nor of any value of them to Him; but of His own good

W. T. Conner, professor of theology, Southwestern Baptist Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas: "The doctrine of election means that God saves in pursuance of an eternal purpose. This includes all the gospel influences, work of the Spirit and so on, that leads a man to repent of his sins and accept Christ. So far as man's freedom is concerned, the doctrine of election does not mean that God decrees to save a man irrespective of his will. It rather means that God purposes to lead a man in such a way that he will freely accept the gospel and be saved.

Pastor J. W. Lee, of Bates-ville, Miss.: "I believe that God has foreordained before the foundation of the world that He would save certain individuals and that He ordained all the means to bring about their salvation on His terms. Men and women are not elected because they repent and believe, but they repent and believe because they are elected."

To the above list of well known and honored Baptists we could add quotations from Gill, Fuller, Spurgeon, Bunyan, Pendleton, Mullins, Dargan, Jeter, Eaton, Graves, and others too numerous to mention. It is sadly true that many of our pastors hold election as a private opinion and never preach it. We personally know a number of brethren who say that election is clearly taught in the Bible, but that we cannot afford to preach it, because it will cause trouble in churches. This is worse than compromise: it is surrender of the truth. It is a spirit that leads preachers to displease God in order to please men. The writer believes that silence upon this subject has wrought more harm than open opposition to it. Those who openly oppose election will, sooner or later, make themselves ridiculous in the eyes of all Bible loving Baptists.

5. IT IS FURTHER OBJECT-ED THAT OUR VIEW OF ELECTION MAKES MEN CARELESS IN THEIR LIV-

It is said that belief in the doctrine leads men to say, "If I am an elect, I will be saved; if I am a non-elect I will be lost, therefore, it matters not what I believe or do." The same objection has been persistently made against the doctrine of the preservation of the saints. This is bald rationalism. It is the setting of human reason against divine revelation. It takes no account of the operation of the grace of God in the human heart. If Baptists surrender election on such a ground, to be consistent, they will have to surrender the doctrine of preservation on the same ground. Election does not mean that the elect will be saved whether they believe or not, nor does it mean that the nonelect will be damned regardless of how much they may repent and believe. The elect will be saved through repentance and faith, and both are gifts from God as already shown; the nonelect do not repent and believe.

THE BAPTIST EXAMINER

PAGE FOUR

MARCH 31, 1951

The objection we are now considering is simply not true to fact. Believers in election have been and still are among the most godly. Augustus Toplady challenged the world to produce a martyr from among the deniers of election. The Puritans, who were so named because of the great purity of their lives, with few exceptions (if any), were believers in personal, eternal, unconditional election, and, of course, in the security of the believer. Modernism that spawn of the pit, is rapidly adding to the number of its adherents, but they are coming from the ranks of Arminianism. Others have challenged the world to find a single Higher Critic, or a single Spiritualist, or a single Russellite, or a single Christian Scientist, who believes in the absolute sovereignty of God and the doctrine of election. Without an exception these awful heretics are Arminians to a man. This is a significant fact that is not to be winked at.

OBJECTORS CLAIM THAT OUR VIEW OF ELEC-TION DESTROYS THE SPIRIT OF MISSIONS.

They boldly assert that if unconditional election should find universal acceptance among us that we would cease to be a missionary people. There is an abundance of historical evidence with which to refute this claim. Under God, the father of modern missions was William Carey, a staunch Calvinist. Andrew Fuller, first secretary of the society that sent Carey to India, held tenaciously to our view of election. It did not destroy the missionary spirit of these men. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." Belief in election did not destroy the missionary spirit in Judson, Spurgeon, Boyce, Eaton, Graves, Carroll and a host of other Baptist leaders. The Murray church, which Dr. J. F. Love called the greatest missionary church on earth, heard election preached by Boyce Taylor for nearly forty years. The greatest missionary churches among us today are those that have been purged from the heresies of James Arminius.

Election is the very foundation of hope in missionary endeavor. If we had to depend upon the natural disposition or will of a dead sinner, who hates God, to respond to our gospel, we might well despair. But when we realize that it is the Spirit that quickeneth, we can go forth with the gospel of the grace of God in the hope that God will cause some, by nature turned away, to be turned unto Him and to believe to the saving of the soul. Election does not determine the extent of missions but the results of it. We are to preach to every creature because God has commanded, and because it pleases Him to save sinners by the foolishness of preaching. We believe more election than the Anti-mission Baptists. We believe that God elected means of salvation as well as persons to salvation. He did not choose to save sinners apart from the gospel ministry. Rom. 1:16.

Election gives a saneness to evangelism that is greatly needed today. It recognizes that sinners "believe through grace" (Acts 18:27) and that while Paul may plant and Apollos may water, God gives the increase. Arminianism has had its day among Baptists and what has it done? It has given us man-power, but robbed us of God's power. It has increased machinery but has decreased spirituality. It has filled our churches with Ishmaels instead of Isaacs by its ministry of "sob stuff" and with the methods of the "counting house."

If this little tract need further Scriptural support, the following Scriptures will give it: Psa. 65:4; Acts 13:48; John 6: 37; 6:44-45; John 17:1-2; Matt. 11:25-26; 2 Cor. 12:3; 2 Cor. 10:

Favoritism

(Continued from page one) get into a rut. Southern Baptists make the mistake of featuring just a few men.

3. No distinction should be made as to wealth and position. Read James 2:1-5. Let us seek to have a church where ALL CLASSES are welcome. The ground down around the cross is absolutely level. In the past, we have served as pastor where kinfolks, clannishness, and distinction between land owners and "share croppers" hindered the Lord's work great-

4. Christians should be "given to hospitality"—especially as Read I Tim. 5:10 and Heb. 13: "Strangers" mentioned here, refers particularly to saved people. It means a great deal for us to create the idea that the doors of our church buildings are open wide in cordial hospitality to any and all who will come for worship.

Will You Strive To Do The Following-For The Sake Of The Church And The Souls Of People?

1. Will you lay aside any "exclusiveness" that you have consciously or unconsciously assumed, and will you mingle among people that come, instead of hurrying home?

2. Will you make it a practice to greet a number of peo-ple who are visitors every Sunday? Will you do your individual part in making yours the friendliest church possible? It will pay rich dividends!

"Blood Redemption"

(Continued from page one) favor with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his Kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the angel answered and said unto her. The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God." So God gave His blood life to the virgin Mary and she gave the body. Christ had no human blood. If He had, He could not have redeemed us for human blood has sin. Mt. 1: 21. "And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins. Isa. "A virgin shall conceive, and bear a son." This was a sign to the Jews. John 3:16. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth

You can join and be baptized by every church, and live the best life you can, and still be lost without the blood of Christ. John 3:7. "Ye must be born again." The new birth brings in him should not perish, but new life from God.

have everlasting life.

(Continued from page one) ran out. In 1947 he lost an eye and quit racing.
His wife and baby were killed in an auto accident. His funds disappeared. He worked as a dishwasher. Then he contracted tuberculosis. Later, after a period in the hospital, he applied for relief, saying he had long ago lost touch with his family.

We relate the incident to show that success, wealth and applause can be very short-liv-

Good-weather friends may also forsake one in the hour of need; but there is "a Friend that sticketh closer than a brother." He is the Lord Jesus Christ.

He not only "died for our sins," but "ever liveth to make intercession" for those placing faith in Him. He has promis-"I will never leave thee nor forsake thee." (Hebrews 13:5). Happy the person who can truthfully say: "I've found a Friend; O, such a Friend! He bled, He died to save me; And not alone the gift of life, But His own self He gave me.

Nought that I have, mine own I'll call, old it for the Giver: My heart, my strength, my life,

Are His, and His for ever."

Religious Debates

(Continued from page one) thou has well said," and inspiration thus records the victory: "and after that they durst not ask him any more questions at all." But the debating masterpiece of Christ is found in Matt. 4 where He debated with the Devil himself. Satan quoted and misapplied God's Word, but Jesus retaliated with Scripture for Scripture and when the debate closes, Satan is fleeing, and our Lord stands as a tried and sure foundation!

GET YOUR

on JESUS

AND KEEP THEM THERE

PAUL was also a great de bater. Acts 17:17 finds him dis puting, or debating with the Jews in the synagogue. 19:8 finds him holding a "three" month" debate principally church truth or "things con cerning the kingdom of God Then in Acts 19:9 we find Pal holding a "two-years" debal or dispute in the school of of Tyrannus, having daily session through the entire two years Did Jesus and Paul do wrong Paul also records his debat "Alexander the Coopel smith" in II Tim. 4:14-17. Th man did Paul "much evi greatly withstanding his word At Paul's "first defense" ever man, including the preachel got "cold feet" and fled, but G stood with Paul hence he wo It seems that not many ar strong enough to debate or eve listen to one, but here God clearly put His approbation debating by standing with Paul when all forsook!

BAPTIST history reveals the down through the centuries the ministry has willingly met the enemies of truth in debate when they would do so. same is true today. Catholic and Protestants once tried till they saw they couldn't fo lack of truth, then forbade it!

The Two Books You Need Next To Your Bible

"A SYSTEMATIC STUDY OF BIBLE

DOCTRINE" (Over 500 pages)

By

T. P. Simmons $3.00 Postpaid

*"ALIEN BAPTISM AND THE BAPTISTS (Approximately 250 pages

> By William Nevins $1.50 Postpaid

Now being printed. You advance order will help us greatly in getting this timely hook on the market.

Order From:

THE BAPTIST EXAMINER

Kussell, Kentucky

VOL.

Bro.

ville, speake

ence t Taberr Baptis lumbu Bro. among them. in pa Mexico three retary five ye the So

Nashvi Tow term Statist Alldre definite Baptist ism. this di found pelled he did ionizin and th book

Southe

tion,

f the fum to all I the St Nashvi enjoye Scarcel tist in read o Alldre voice a Baptist

PUB The is one misuse How o get do pray tl

mercif save th no ne Christ Public mercif

yes, I old ti cries a lists. ligion.

Christi is not is reve stition man 1

back Christi Himse? in the (Cox