by John R. Gilpin, Sr. I am sure that every one will agree that there is something wrong with the churches of today. Even in Jesus' day there was wrong in the church He established, for Judas Iscariot, it's treasurer was a thief. From that day till this, we have never had a perfect church, for all churches are made up of imperfect human beings; and even today regardless of the claims of some who say that they live absolutely sinlessly and perfectly, there isn't a church in all the world but what there is something wrong in it.

Human judgment would give varied answers as to the wrong. However, only heaven's judgment is to be trusted. It is because of this that we turn to the Scriptures for our answer to the question, 'What's wrong with the church?"

Ephesus, the largest of these seven churches, had left her first

No one who think any of us will disagree on wants to be saved has committed this. I suspect that the vast the unpardonable sin, whatever it is. Oh, I delight to preach the free offer of the gospel. Some sovereign grace people do not like this terminology, but I preach it anyway. In the gospel of Jesus Christ, eternal life is offered to all who hear that gospel. form of this doctrine to terrify here that anyone, anywhere, any-down by trial, persecution, & time, who will repent of sin and maybe sin, that they have, in believe on Jesus Christ will be moment of despair, committee eternally saved. If the Bible does this act. We know that a person not repeatedly teach this, then I once saved is always saved; and am unable to understand what it this does happen, they do not lo teaches on this matter.

Now, let us look at some false explanations of what constitutes the unpardonable sin. I heard one preacher say that it was to deny the virgin birth. He said that Christ was conceived in the womb of the virgin Mary by the Holy Spirit, and for anyone to deny that would be to commit the pardonable sin, whatever that sin unpardonable sin. One favorite theory with many this would not have time to get Anyone who wants to be saved, forgiveness for this sin, and thus majority of those who commit suicide are unsaved sinners who go immediately into hell. But I feel very confident in saying that some Christians have committed suicide, that this does not at all affect their salvation, and they are now in heaven with the Lord. I do not desire to mitigate the sinfulness of this act, but I believe that some

Let's go back to Mark 3:30, which I have said tells us what As I said, this is the most this sin is. Note the word "they" opular doctrine of what constiin that verse. It is not just anyone the unpardonable sin. It is who says this. It is those people based upon and connected with who knew somewhat of the Word my other false teachings. I have of God, who had seen Christ's often said that heresy runs in miracles, who knew that the evipacks, and this certainly illustrates dence was all there that Jesus was Point. This false explanation the Messiah, who absolutely reof the unpardonable sin is based fused to receive Him as such, and the following: 1. God loves who invented this explanation of the following: 1. There is not a man living on the face of this earth who has committed this sin, or who can commit this sin. Oh, I do not want to lessen any part of the Word of God. I do want to be true to that Word. I do not want to make sin look any less than the vile, black, horrible thing that it really is. I do not want to lessen the thrust of any warning in the Bible. I do not want to blunt the sharp edge of any portion of the Word of God. Sin is awful. Sin is terrible. Sin will send you to hell except you repent and believe the gospel.

I return to my beginning. I preached this as one of three connected sermons. I preached these sermons to exhort and encourage sinners to trust Jesus Christ as Saviour. I preached on "Big Sins" to show that any sinner, no matter how many or how terrible his sins, could be saved by the grace and power of God. I preached on "Little Sins" to show that no matter how little one had sinned, he still must be saved or go to hell. I preached on "The Unpardonable Sin" to show that there is no man living today who is guilty of this sin. I preached these three sermons to show that any sinner who wants to be saved, can be saved. I say this to any who read this message. If you want to be saved, you can be. Big sinners can be saved. Little sinners need to be saved. No one has committed an unpardonable sin and can't be saved. If you want to be saved, you can be. "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou leaveneth the whole lump?" Exclusion in most cases results from a public offence against the assembly. At times exclusion can result from a private offence between two, or more members, but not before the steps of Matthew 5:23,24 and Matthew 18:15-17 are followed in every detail and the results lead progressively only to exclusion. The reasons for exclusion are never to be taken lightly and one of the ultimate purposes in exclusion is the spiritual restoration and good of the excluded. An excluded brother, or sister is not an automatic enemy, although that seems the case oftentimes, but we are to pray for them and admonish them as we may have opportunity. A person who has come to the place of exclusion must be excluded from membership and its privileges. For whatever reason exclusion comes, the church must act in unity as to its treatment of the individual. Members cannot treat the individual with the same social familiarity that they did in the past, but never as an enemy. I Corinthians 5:11 tells us we are not to eat with (socialize) with a disorderly brother. Likewise, II Thessalonians 3:14,15 says, "And if any man obey not our word, by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as brother." We are not to treat them as though nothing had happened, but our actions should lead them to be ashamed. In view of all of this, could we only partially exclude a member by just excluding him, or her from some church privileges? It is my conviction that it should not be done. Would we exclude them from public praying, or the Lord's table service, or voting in a business meeting? If they are worthy of exclusion from any one of these privileges, or others, they must be worthy of exclusion of membership. Membership includes all of these privileges, and to take away some takes away all. I see no Scriptural example of such exclusionary practise. An excluded person is to be shunned until restoration, if that comes about. Excluding a person from some church privileges, but not membership would make them a substandard member. Since there is no Scriptural example for such prac-done. It may be that some assemblies practise this: I do not know. As I have said before, a church has the right to set their own practise on subjects such as this not fully defined in Scripture as long as the practise does not go against Scripture, or violate Christian charity.

SAM WILSON 1490 North Spring St. Gladwin, MI 48624

Read I Corinthians; 12:14-31.

I believe that this passage from God's Word will refute such a theory as mentioned in our question. Let me answer this question with a most emphatic "NO!" It is never proper to exclude a member of the church from some church privileges but not from full membership. I also do not agree with the term; "a member in good standing." If they are not in good standing, then why are they still members? There is absolutely no Scripture to back up the practice as mentioned in this question. There is very little, if any history to back up this practice. I do not feel that we can do such and remain consistent with the Bible.

Let me ask a couple of questions about this practice. Which church privileges are you going take away from these members? Is it the privilege of voting on church business? Who gives you the right? How can you have church authority if you practice this? Are you going to deny them the right to take the Lord's Supper? On what grounds? I know one privilege you will not deny them; that is the privilege of paying their tithes and offerings. You would welcome their money but deny them the right to vote. This is wrong. This is a practice that sounds good but is full of great and terrible inconsistencies. I would urge churches not to practice this. You are setting yourself up for future troubles. You must now make a new set of rules for this practice. Which practices do you exclude someone from church membership, and which from just some church privileges? Which church privileges will be taken away for which sins? There are far too many questions and far too few answers for this practice.

Let me conclude by saying this. If a person should be excluded from some church privileges, I that person should also be excluded from church membership. Let us not try to be too nice in this area. There is no compromise here. Let us not come up with practices that sound good but do not agree with Bible teaching and common sense. No, it is not proper to exclude a member from church membership. May God bless you all.

(Editor's Note: Very good,

JOHN PRUITT Rt. 1-Box 452-B Williamson, GA. 30292

I personally know of no Scriptural evidence for such conduct. I realize that many churches practice this. Neither can I say that it is improper to do such. Perhaps there would have to be some consideration given to the type of offence committed. Furthermore, I believe that God has given His churches certain liberties that allow them to set polices and rules which would enable them to maintain order in the assembly. Jesus said in Matthew 18:18, "Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Literally, whatsoever things ye bind or loose have already been bound and loosed in heaven. I believe that their are times when a specific thing is not spelled out in the Scripture, but is determined by a principle taught in other words. from among yourselves that its two Counsellors, or for In the by-laws of this church, it states that if one is absent from the assembly for a period of three months, they are to be placed on an inactive list and denied voting privileges and Lord's Supper

Is this improper? I think not. Some object to the "inactive" status, but if a member is not attending church with some kind of regularity, then it stands to reason that that person is in fact after the first and second of the unholy and impious inactive. Certainly if a member has committed some sort of open sin that brings reproach on the are instructed how to discipline in Matthew 28:19, "Go name of Christ and His church, those who fail to heed the com- therefore, and teach all and fails or refuses to apologize, mands of our Lord. The Scripture is very plain as to the kind of discipline the church is to practice. Sad to say the churches of today seem to ignore God's way and either set up their own system or not practice it at all. Looking in Matthew 18:17 we find Christ telling His church that if there was trouble between two brethren and one refused to settle the problem, "And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he is bogus in its origin and its a neglect to hear the church, thority. They are what of let him be unto thee as an Saviour calls "thieves and saviour calls "thieves" heathen man and a publican." That is the church was to withdraw fellowship from him.

Next, we find in Romans 16:17 apostles; the church is instructed, "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them." Again we see the church is to of Christ." withdraw from such ones. If a church member were to rob a bank and be convicted, it would probably be necessary for that one to be excluded until such time as: it was possible for them to come before the church to ask forgiveness and to request that they be reinstated. To not do this, in my opinion, would impede the authority of the church. The church, in light of true and sincere repentance should restore such a one. "Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of considering meekness: thyself, lest thou also be tempted" (Gal 6:1).

JAMES A. CRACE 1862 St. John's Rd. Crescent Springs,

Bethel Baptist Crescent Springs

Tithing is a physical indicator of just where a child of God is spiritually. If a church member trusts God for his eternal soul, should he not trust Him with such a small thing as his money. A church member that will not tithe is lacking in faith, or is ignorant "Bring ye all the of God's Word. I don't believe a thes into the storehouse, member ought to be excluded for there may be meat in not tithing, but that they should house, and prove me be instructed in the blessings of here with, saith the giving God the firstfruits of their of hosts, if I will labor. Concerning the second question, I cannot answer whether or not a church should exclude a member for robbing a bank. Robbing a bank is a civil criminal act, and is a sin. I believe wilful sin, when not repented of warrants exclusion. Such action not only dishonors the Lord but also dishonors the church. If a member robbed a bank and would not repent to the Lord first and to the church for the reproach brought upon her, then exclusion would be in order.

God hath, in Himself, all power to defend you, all wisdom to direct you, all mercy to pardon you, all grace to enrich you, all righteousness to clothe you, all goodness to supply you, and all happiness to crown you.

There are certain laws and ordinances laid down in the Bible. They are given for our instruction and our learning. We are to obey them. The laws of God are good. They are meant for our good and In today's world, there are a lot not for our hurt. When we obey these laws we will be better Christians. We will be blessed thereby. We will be rewarded even in this life for obeying the laws of God, and we will be rewarded in > Tithing is an ordinance of God and ought to be obeyed. To obey this law we will be blessed more than we can imagine. " Bring ye all the tithe into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it (Malachi 3:10). There are laws in this land. We are to obey them so far as is possible. We are to obey the laws of this country unless they are in opposition to the teachings of the Bible. If the laws are right, then it is good and right to obey them. Ve are taught this by the Bible. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good ... " (Romans 13:3). If we are afraid not to obey the rulers of this country, how much more so should we fear not to obey God. If we do not obey the law, then we can expect punishment because of our disobeying the law. "For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God..." (Romans 13:4).

Where there is a law, there is a penalty. If there is no penalty for breaking the law or ordinance; then it is not a law, but merely a suggestion.

There is a law against stealing and robbing. There is a penalty attached to this law. If a person is convicted for robbing a bank that person will have to pay according to the penalty attached to the law. There is praise and blessings for obeying the law and there is punishment for disobeying.

How can it be right to be a penalty for robbing a bank and then not a penalty for robbing

The disgusting doctrine of plural marriage is omitted from these Articles of Faith. But it still stands in the Book of Doctrine and Covenants as a revelation from God to be observed under pain of eternal damnation. Yet as Mrs. Orson Pratt said: "This pretended revelation was simply a dishonest trick on the part of Joseph Smith to cloak over his own wicked and immoral life, and to keep the peace in his household." It will be seen that the Mormon people are required to accept the pretended revelation sanctioning plural marriage, on pain of eternal damnation, from the following quotation from this bogus revelation which still stands in their official book:

"For behold I reveal unto you a new and an everlasting covenant; and if you abide not that covenant then are you damned: for no one can reject this covenant and be permitted to enter into My glory...And again, as pertaining to the law of the priesthood, if any man espouse a virgin and desire to espouse another, and the first give her consent; and if he espouse the second and they are virgins and have vowed to no other man, then he is justified; for he cannot commit adultery with that that belongeth unto him and to none else; and if he have ten virgins given unto him by this law, he cannot commit adultery for they belong unto him; and they are given unto him; therefore is he justified" (Doctrine and Covenants," chap. 132).

Now, what is this but a depraved and cunning bribe to every kind of social immorality? And that has been its direct result for two generations, with the iniquity half the members of their own societies--their baptized infants and children--while Baptist churches do commune with all of their own

Presbyterians, by their decisions and the practice of their judicatures, are close communionists.

The most eminent expounders of their ecclesiastical statutes tell us that only those who hold the self-same faith can unite in 'sealing ordinances," without doing violence to the teachings of God's Word and the Presbyterian standards. Since this will be established in examining the discussions of their Assemblies and Synods, to be submitted, I shall devote no space to its proof here.

According to the Pan-Presbyterian Assembly, that met in Edinburgh in 1877, there are, in the world, forty-nine different sects of Presbyterians. [The First General Council convened in Edinburgh, July, 1877, at which twenty-two Presbyterian denominations were represented. Twenty-seven other Presbyterian "branches" expressed a desire to be represented .-- Ex. Proceedings Second Pan council.]

Now, it is a fact, that only two or three of these will commune with each other. Their divergence from the old Presbyterian faith consistently separates them from each other's tables, since the Lord's Supper is, faith held by all the participants.

In that Assembly a resolution was offered to unite in an open communion service, as they all belonged to the same great Presbyterian family. A grave and reverent doctor of divinity is reported to have used these sentiments in opposing it: President: Why are we today divided into different and distinct churches? Because we could not scripturally or consistently commune together. And why could we not commune together? Because, having embraced diverse faiths, separating from a common faith, we were compelled to separate from a common communion table. If we can scripturally or consistently commune together on the morrow, we can always do so; and all come together, and live henceforth in one church, and dissolve forty-eight of our organizations as schisms."

'Mr. President: What would we proclaim by uniting in a common communion of this body? That we the many are all one church, and all hold and teach one faith, one doctrine; and would we not act a great untruth before the whole world--for the eyes of the whole world are upon us--when we know, and the whole world knows, that we are forty-nine distinct churches, holding and teaching forty-nine different faiths?"

The resolution was voted down with great emphasis. When the second session of this assembly was held, in New York, in 1880, a similar motion was rejected, and for the same reasons. Thus, by the highest Presbyterian authority in the world, is open communion pronounced unscriptural and fraudulent--a solemn acting of a palpable untruth before the world!

It is worthy of special note that this last Pan-Presbyterian Council would not admit the Cumberland Presbyterians to a seat, even so unorthodox did it consider them; and how much less could they consistently commune with them! But this is not all the proof.

In 1845, the two Presbyterian General Assemblies, the old school and the new school, met, the same week, in Philadelphia. The latter resolved to celebrate the Lord's Supper on the coming Sunday, and adopted a resolution inviting the old school to unite with them in a joint celebration. A most courteous and fraternal invitation was drawn up and sent to the old school assembly by the hands of venerable ministers. How was that invitation received? A leading member of the old school assembly took the floor, and, with flushed cheek, and closed teeth, asked: "Had we a right to expect this public insult from the body meeting in another part of this city, calling itself a "Presbyterian Assembly?" What is it, Mr. President, but an insult, openly cast into our teeth before the eyes of the whole world? What does it ask us to do? To unite with them in celebrating the Lord's Supper--a sealing ordinance--and thereby, in the presence of God and men, proclaim our fellowship for them in respect to their faith and practice. Have they not manifestly departed from our standard of faith--the Confession? and was it not for this that this body felt in duty bound to excommunicate them for heresy? what, then, do they ask us to do by this invitation? They ask us to stultify ourselves and act a lie in the face of Christendom! Why did we separate? Because we hold different faiths, and, therefore, could not commune together. And now they ask us to say to the world, by our act, that we are one body, and hold one and the self-same faith, which we know, and they know, is not true."

The invitation was unanimously and indignantly rejected as an insult. Is not this practical close communion? If two Presbyterian churches, constructively adopting the same Confession of faith, cannot consistently commune together, how can Presbyterians commune with Methodists and Campbellites! If it is accounted an insult for one sister Presbyterian church to invite to commune, how much more an Baptists to invite Presbyterians to commune with them? That grave doctor was right, though his language sounds severe. What insult more stinging could be offered a man, than to ask him to forswear himself for your benefit? And this very thing Presbyterians and Methodists do when they ask Baptists to say to the world, by the most solemn acts, that they cordially endorse the faith and the practice of Presbyterians or Methodists, and that they are all one and the self-same church of Christ--one body! And this great untruth the various denominations, when they intercommune, do constantly act before the world and before God; and thereby eat and drink unworthily, profaning the sacred ordinance, and making themselves guilty of the body and blood of the Lord Jesus.

I will further prove my statement from the Synodical Enactments of a Synod in a neighboring state: "The committee on bills and overtures, to whom was referred the question: 'Is it proper that there should be intercommunion between Presbyterians and those denominations (Methodists and Campbellites) who hold Arminian sentiments?' presented the following report, which was

'That, after giving it all the attention which the importance of the subject demands, they are of opinion, that, for Presbyterians to hold communion, in sealing ordinances, with those who deny the doctrines of grace through the blood of Christ, etc., is highly prejudicial to the truth as it is in Jesus. Nor can such intercommunion answer any valuable purpose to those who practice it, as two cannot walk together except they be agreed."

Now, not to incur the odium of "close communion," "bigotry," etc., this committee inserted the provision, that, if any should greatly desire to commune with them, "after having conversed with them, and received satisfaction as to their soundness in the faith"--Presbyterian, of course, on the points of doctrine, etc.--"on which their church and ours differ," with evidence of their piety, as an act of charity, such can be admitted to occasional communion!! This means that a Methodist or Campbellite, or Cumberland Presbyterian, can occasionally--and then examination as to their personal piety, and will satisfy the session that they fully endorse the doctrine of eternal personal election and reprobation; and that Baptists, even, may occasionally come, if, in addition to the above doctrines, they avow their cordial delight with the doctrine of federal holisacramental grace, infant baptism, and effusion. Can Methodists and Campbellites, and, much less, Baptists, do this even once? If once, can they not one thousand times? Can they not unite, and be Presbyterians forever?

I quote one more Enactment from the same source: "The committee on a former resolution of synod on the subject of intercommunion, reported. The report was adopted, viz.:

The committee are of opinion that for Presbyterians to hold communion in sealing ordinances with those who belong to churches holding doctrines conisters is equally true of Presbyth rian and Methodist preachers.

The Methodists are close com munionists. Anyone the least fa miliar with the Methodist Disch pline and Bishop Hedding's work on the administration of it, knows that by the laws laid down there for the observance of the Supper no Methodist preacher, elder, o bishop, can invite Baptists, Pres byterians, or Campbellites to the Methodist communion table without openly violating the law of his society, which, in his ord nation, he vowed before God and man to strictly observe. I will give the teachings of the Disci pline and the rulings of the Methodist bishop in the same connection, that no one can cavil Bishop Hedding, Methodist, his work on the administration 0 the Discipline, asks: "Is it prope for a preacher to give out a general invitation in the congregation members in good standing in other churches to come to the Lord Supper? And again: "There are som communities, called churches which, from heretical doctrines immoral practices, have no claim to the privileges of Christians, and ought not to be admitted to communion of any Christian Per ple" (pp. 72,73).

He instructs the preachers to what the Discipline enjoins, and enjoins thus: "But no perso shall be admitted to the Lord Supper among us who is guilty any practice for which we woll exclude a member of our church

Who can doubt that all those who eat with this intent, "eat and drink unworthily," failing to discern the Lord's body, mistaking altogether as they do the true design of the ordinance? But what is truly amazing is the fact that most Campbellite ministers, though holding and teaching that no one can be a Christian unless immersed for the remission of sins, and that none can be church members or scripturally entitled to partake of the Lord's Supper unless man will one die: yet perof church and Christian fellow-who originated the religious system justly called Campbellism-and we think it should be respected, unless they are willing to be regarded as supremely

"But I object to making it a rule in any case, to receive unimmersed persons to church ordinances; 1. Because it is nowhere commanded; 2. Because it is nowhere precedented in the New Testament; 3. Because it necessarily corrupts the simplicity and uniformity of the whole genius of the New Testament; 4. Because it not only deranges the order of the kingdom, but makes void one of the most Important institutions given to It necessarily makes immersion of non-effect; 5. Because in making a canon to dispense with a divine institution of momentary import, they, who do so assume the very same dispensing power which issued in that tremendous apostasy which we, and all Christians, are laboring to destroy" (Ch. Bapt., vol. 6). I have not space to continue this exposure of the unscripturalness and supreme absurdity of open communion. If Baptists, and all friends of truth and consistency, will but take these facts and arguments, and boldly and vigorously impress them upon the people, the days of open communion would speedily be numbered. The most effective arms, the most powerful and destructive cannon, can effect nothing without brave and skilled men to use them, and this is what the Baptist cause now so greatly needs--more brave and faithful men to use the weapons drawn from the divine armory upon bold, arrogant error, that is rampant all around us, and only a few daring to strike

The humblest member, even a sister whom love of Christ and His truth makes bold, could reply when reproached, because her church does not invite all denominations to its table.

We believe, in common with your own denomination, that the Lord's Supper is a church ordinance, and, therefore, none but its Own members have a right to partake together, as they alone have the right to vote in the same church.

But were this not the case, we Baptists do not wish to insult you by inviting you to our table, thus asking you to endorse, before God and man, our faith and order as scriptural, and thereby repudiating your own.

Bible reading and prayer time is a must if we are to grow in the Lord; (3). meditation on the things that are good and proper; (4). family devotions and a time of seeking God's direction as a family unit; and, (5). a study of Bible doctrine and truth. How will we know that we have been delivered? That is somewhat simple and yet complex. Our communication (speech) and behavior (walk) will inform others that something has happened to the child of God that is totally yielded to Him. You do not need to go around with a sign placed on your back saying, "I am a spiritual Christian," for your speech and conduct will only confirm or deny the statement.

The Christian should be delivered from evil works - 2 Timothy 4:18 and the appearance of evil in general - I Thessalonians 5:22. Someday, God will take and deliver the child of God from this present evil world - Galatians 1:4. That has not yet happened but it will some day. We should live as though that day was today! However, it is impossible to be delivered without first knowing the Lord as your Saviour. That can and ministry of the Holy Spirit of God that draws the elect unto God. Once that has been done, the child of God has been placed into the family and is thereby known as one of God's dear ones. mixed up with the church.

Today, we have churches just like each of these three. There are those who once loved the Lord edge of God: I speak this to supremely, but have departed from your shame," (I Cor. 15:33, their first love. There are others like Smyrna that are being fought In my thinking, these verses from without because of the dochave reference to: (1). blasphemy; trinal stand which the church has taken. Then there are others just like Pergamos that are worldly, speech that is injurious to others; and which have a mixed and, (6). the acts of men that may membership with some desirous of serving the Lord and others living for the world.

Today, we consider the church at Thyatira. I have always had an idea that possibly this church was esshould be delivered and can be tablished through the efforts of when our lives are affected by the Lydia. You remember that she was truth of the gospel of Jesus Paul's first convert in Europe. Christ. In order for that to take Listen to the story of her converplace, several things need to be sion: "And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us" (Acts 16:14, 15).

> Regardless of who started the church, the Lord Jesus had a message for it. To read His message, we see thus that the church was a busy, bustling, successful, wide awake organization. At first reading, we are compelled to say that Thyatira was an unusually active church. Yet, on closer observation, we shall see that this church was perhaps more successful than Scriptural, and more active than obedient.

I. Jesus' revelation of Himself to this church is far different to that of the revelation of Himself to the rest of the churches. Listen: And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes not be done apart from the work like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass" (Rev. 2:18).

> In this connection, He reminds them that He is Divine. He tells them that it is "the Son of God" with whom they are dealing. On the day of His transfiguration, the Father acknowledged that Jesus was His

> Even the devils of hell Jesus Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God" (Mark 1:24).

Now the One who is acknowledged by both God and the devil to be Divine, reveals Himself to this church at Thyatira as "the Son of God."

This church needed to see Him Smyrna was living rightly and as the Son of God. They didn't need to see Him as a man, but as God Himself. Incidentally, beloved, this is true of every church in the world today. Our churches the world around need to remember that the founder and the One with whom we have to deal, is not man, but God.

Further, Jesus revealed Himself as omniscient, for the Scriptures, declare that His eyes were "like unto a flame of fire." Yes, Jesus is omniscient. He sees all of us all the time. Let me remind you that the God of the Old Testament, and concerning Him, it is said - "The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good" (Prov. 15:3).

In the New Testament, we read the same truth: "For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things" (I John 3:20).

This church at Thyatira needed to know that the Christ with whom they were dealing, and who was dealing with them, had firey eyes that brought to light the hidden things of darkness. He thus revealed Himself to this church as one who had eyes to pierce them through like an x-ray, and thus search out the hurtful things of

He further revealed Himself to this church as omnipotent, for the Scriptures declare that "his feet are like fine brass." I rejoice that the Christ we love today is omnipotent - He is all powerful. Listen to these Scriptures: "I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee" (Job. 42:2). "But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible" (Matt. 19:26).

What mighty words are these. Surely the Christ we serve is omnipotent - is all powerful.

These folk at Thyatira needed to know that Jesus was all powerful they needed to know that He had feet of power wherewith to trample and stomp out their sins.

Here was a church that had gone to the very depths of sin. Jesus, therefore, revealed Himself to this church not as a man, but as God. With His eyes of fire He could see through their evil, and with His feet of brass, He had power to stomp it out.

What a challenging revelation of Jesus this gives us today. The one with whom we are dealing and who is dealing with us, is not man, but God. He is the God who sees all sin, and He has power to blot it out. What a challenging revelation to worldly Christians, unorthodox churches, and heterodoxial preachers. Surely this revelation is just what we need today we need to know that our Christ is God, and that He sees through our evil and that He has the power to stomp it out.

II. Following Jesus' treatment of the other churches, He first commended Thyatira. Before looking for their failures, He sought first to look at the virtues of each of these churches. Most folk prefer and find first the good.

Here is a fine little poem: "Don't look for the flaws as you go through life;

And even when you find them,

It is wise and kind to be somewhat blind

And look for the virtues behind

This was Jesus' way of dealing with each of these churches, and so when we come to the church in Thyatira, we notice that there were several things for which He commended them. First of all, He commended them for their works. It is rather interesting to notice that He had commended all three of the churches we have studied thus far, in the same manner. This church at Thyatira was no exception. It wasn't an idle church they were bustling about with their activities. They were busy; they were wide awake; they were doing things, and these works pleased the Lord.

I heard some time ago concerning three tramps lying by the roadside. A man came by and offered to give a quarter to the laziest one of the three. One man jumped up and said he was the laziest. The second turned over and claimed the honor. The third said, without moving, "Just put the quarter in my pocket." Lots of church members are like this latter individual, but not so with the church at Thyatira, for they were busy at work for the Lord, and thus they earned His commendation.

Then, He also commended them for their love. We read: "I know thy works, and charity..." (Rev. 2:19).

The word "charity" is the word for love, and indicates their love for one another. In this respect, Jesus commended them.

Every church ought to earn Jesus' commendation in this manner, for church members should show their love one toward the other. Yet, in lots of churches, this is not true. There are many churches today who could not receive Jesus' commendation in this manner, for countless hundreds and thousands of them are torn with strifes and divisions, and the members spend their time backbiting, gossiping, and defaming the character of one another. They need to stand still and listen to what God says in His Word concerning this matter of love.

He also commended them for their faith. "I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith..." (Rev. 2:19). Of course, this was the foundation for their love and service and their works. You see their works grew out of their faith. This is what the Word of God teaches

"But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?" (James 2:20). No man is saved by works, but, beloved, if he has been saved by grace through faith, there will be works in his life that are pleas-

Yet, this church at Thyatira was very much unlike that, for this church not only began to serve the Lord, but continued, and Jesus commended them for their last works as well as their first works.

III. After commending this church in these particulars, then Jesus proceeded to condemn them. May I remind you that the Lord' Jesus Christ is never blind to men's vices. I realize that today there are many who believe that a woman ceived by letter none, excluded has just as much right to preach as none, restored to fellowship none, a man. Yet, beloved, one of the first qualifications that God gave for a preacher is, "A bishop then must be blameless; the husband of one wife..." (I Tim. 3:2). Now I would like to see any woman that could qualify. She might be the wife of one husband, but she'd have an exceedingly hard time being the husband of one wife.

God's Vindication of His Servant

by Joseph M. Wilson not come down from that 1:1). bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed" (II Kings 1:3,4).

You will remember that we studied Elijah back in the cave where he ran for his life from Jezebel. We find that God met him there, spoke to him and taught him and then said, "Get out of here and get back to work."

On his way back to Israel, he met Elisha and called Elisha to be a prophet. Elisha began to company with Elijah. Probably for the last ten years or so of Elijah's life and ministry, Elisha com-Panied with Elijah.

From that time, until the event we studied relative to Naboth's vineyard, was probably six or seven years, but do not judge Eli-Jah and say, "Well, he was not doing anything during that time," because we do not know. God has given us only a portion of the ministry of Elijah. Therefore I am assuming that during those years between the call of Elisha and the story of Naboth's vineyard, Elijah was training Elisha, preaching the Word of God in different places and working with these schools of the prophets training other men to be preachers of the Word of God.

A few more years passed between the story of Naboth's vineyard and the story of this event in Elijah's life. Ahab has died in the meantime and his son Ahaziah has become king of Israel. This story is relative to Elijah's ministry to

Yet God's grace Sometimes intervenes and saves the children of very wicked parents. Apart from the intervention of the grace of God, the influence of such wicked parents usually will tell adversely upon the lives of the children. Here is Ahaziah with probably the meanest woman who ever lived for his mother and Ahab for his dad, and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the way of his

the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight. Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight. The angel of the LORD said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king" (II King 1:13,14,15).

We could preach a sermon on how to stay out of the fire. Humble yourself down before God Almighty, and seek the mercy of the Lord, and say unto God, "Have mercy on me! "When men humble themselves before God, and earnestly desire the mercy of the Lord, He always delights to show mercy. The fire did not fall on that third captain (I did not expect it to, did you?) because here was one who desired the mercy of the Lord and humbled himself before the Lord and before the man of God, showing that he believed in the power of the God of Elijah. When men believe in God, humble themselves before God, and desire mercy from God--they will stay out of the fire, but all others will be in the fire sooner or later. I am sure he did not do it, but I have often thought that when God said to Elijah "...be not afraid..." and "...Go down with him:..." Elijah might have answered, "Who is afraid?" I guess he did not do that, but he sure did not act as though he was afraid, did he? When God left him to himself he was like other men, but here the Lord strengthened, and blessed and with confidence in the Lord, he goes down with those fifty soldiers to the palace of Ahaziah. And, oh, methinks it must have been like a triumphal march. I think no victorious general ever returned from the battle and entered into the city with anymore of a victory than Elijah. He comes in, not as a captive of those fifty soldiers, but as one whom God has vindicated. God has testified and shown His power in behalf of Elijah, and Elijah goes in and comes before Ahaziah, and I'll tell you now, a lot of folks could preach a message to servants that they would not preach to a king. You know, it would be easy to get a servant off somewhere and preach a strong, bold message to him, but ole Elijah said the same thing to the king that he said to the servants of the king. He came in and said, "King, you are going to die." "And he said unto him, Thus saith gave a promise to the overcomthe LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to inquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron, is it not because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die" (II Kings 1:16). He said, "Why did you send to Baalzebub? Is it not because there is no God in Israel, because God has forsaken Israel? Israel turned their backs on God and you have sent down to another any good, you are going to die."

according to the word of the spoken..." (II Kings 1:17).

God vindicates His servants. Here was a man serving God, and the captain said, "...Thou man of God,..." (v.9), probably making fun of Elijah. Elijah said, "...If I be a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven and consume not." thee and thy fifty." A lot of people criticize Elijah over that, but Elijah did not send the fire. Don't jump on Elijah and say, "Oh, what a mean, cruel, person Elijah was." He could not bring fire down from heaven if he wanted to. Elijah was concerned about the glory of God, and I believe that God told Elijah, or moved upon his soul to ask for that fire. Elijah did not bring the fire down. If you want to blame anyone, you have to blame God.

People say, "Well, that is in the Old Testament, it is not like that in the New Testament. Well, there are some differences in the New Testament, but I want you to understand that there is a New Testament "fire" just as well, and those who go on in rebellion against God are going to feel the eternal fires of the wrath of God. I want you to see that God vindicated Elijah and backed His man, by sending the fire down and destroying two captains and a hundred soldiers. By the death of Ahaziah, God again backed Elijah. And, beloved friends, God is going to stand behind His man. Now we might not stand true to God as we should, but when we do stand true to God, He will back us to the hilt and stand behind us all the way.

Dear friends, if we will be true to God, if we will stand true to the Word of God, if we will obey the Lord, here or yonder, sooner or later, God will manifest His power in our behalf, God will back us. It is up to us to be true to God and to His Word and we can depend upon the Lord being behind us all the way. May God bless you!!

same thing. They had a church that was run by a woman, and Jesus condemned them and so far as I am concerned, any church which is run by a woman today, or which unbridles it's women to conduct it's public worship service, to teach men, to pray in public, or even speak out in public worship - such a church has the condemnation of the Lord Jesus Christ today.

IV. After commending and condemning this church, Jesus also ers." And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations: And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father" (Rev. 2:26, 27).

You will notice the expression, "space to repent". This church at Thyatira had an opportunity to repent. If you are a feminist, God gives you the same opportunity. If you are member of a church or if you are a pastor of a church which is run by a woman, then God gives you "space to repent" today.

I thank God also that He is giving to many sinners today "space to repent." It may be that this is God's day for you, and if so, may you repent now and believe the gospel that Christ died for your sins, and may you accept Jesus Christ as your Saviour, for to reject the Son of God means, your "space to repent," to come to an end; and for you to die unsaved, means a devil's hell; therefore, "...believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved..."

STUDIES

We learn from Acts 4:22 that this man was above forty years old. The people knew that he was not an imposter for he could never have pretended to be lame for such a long period of time. "And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering" (Acts 3:11).

Peter and John had been and would be hated by the Jewish people. They, however, for a moment in time, were held or embraced by this Jew who had been healed. This one embrace and the sight of this man's joy-filled face was worth it all. They would now be equipped to go many more miles in the strength they had received on that day. That night, as they lay in prison for their action, they must have thanked God over and over again because of what He had done through them.

The people who observed this mountain that was cast into the sea were filled with wonder and amazement. They, in fact, "ran together," or as a group, to the frame of mind for a gospel message. The stage had been set and the audience had gathered. The Spirit would now inspire Peter to speak to them. "And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we The overcomers - that is, those had made this man to very grateful to have been God's instrument in this mighty work, but he had learned and learned well that he was totally helpless when left to himself. He knew, as Jesus me ye can do nothing." They, on the other hand, could do they accepted Jesus as the Messiah, could expect Him to do all sorts of marvelous things -- things which He had already done when living among them. They, after observing the resurrected Lazarus, should not marvel or wonder at the healing of this lame man.

"The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified His Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied Him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let Him go" (Acts 3:13). The people had all come to the temple at 3 a.m. to pray to the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, yea, the God of their fathers. They, however, had not recognized Jesus Christ as God's Son -- the Son, of course, having far greater than God's servants; Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Peter, at this time, was speaking to over five thousand people since we know from Acts 4:4 that there were "about five thousand men" whom the Spirit converted on this occasion. Peter referred first to the God of Abraham since it was through his seed that God had promised to bless all the families of the earth. He was also the God of Abraham because Abraham had acknowledged Him as such.

Peter informs the people that the healing of this lame man was God's way of glorifying His Son. The healing of the lame man, in fact, was a secondary thing or a by-product of God glorifying His Son. Peter, in a sense of speaking, pointed his finger at this large audience and said, "You denied Him, but God has glorified Him and the proof is right before your eyes." You denied Him in the presence of Pilate, but the God of your fawas determined to let Him go, but you said, no. This fact makes you, rather than Pilate, the ones who killed Him. You thought you had gotten rid of Him, but this man who was lame is full proof that He is very much alive."

"But ye denied the Holy sired a murderer to be calls these ignorant murderers granted unto you; and killed "brethren." He, in other words, 10 the Prince of life, whom gards himself as belonging to the God hath raised from the same nation as they. Peter, by dead; whereof we are wit- calling them brethren, also said nesses" (Acts 3:14, 15). Peter that he was not by nature any had a captivated audience. They holier than they were. He, in fact, could not walk away from what had already called them murderers, had happened, and Peter lays it on His approach now was to lead the line as to what it was. Peter them gently to repentance and Holy One and the Just, desiring a blood but was seeking repentance murderer in His place, or one who and faith from them. Peter was porch that is called Solmon's, and just. This fact showed that Jesus Christ, in fact, had not come greatly wondering." It showed that when Jesus came and so were all they like sheep had gone astray those whom Peter was addressing. and turned to their own way.

God, however, had raised Himself, when hanging on the Him from the dead, which Peter tree, had said, "They know no knew to be a fact since he had what they do." "...If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you" (Matthew 17:20).

The people, according to verses ten and eleven, were filled with amazement and wonder regarding the perfect soundness of body which this lame man now possessed. Peter proceeds to fill in the blank spaces or to put the puzzle together for them. The part of this puzzle which was missing, as far as they were concerned, was Jesus -- the very one they had crucified. They had killed the Prince of Life, but that same Prince was the very one who had made this man whole. The Prince, then had risen from the dead. He had broken the chains of death, or as Acts 2:24 states, "Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that He should be holden of it."

The words "perfect soundness" mean that he was free of any defect. God had overhauled his entire body so that he was like new. He was better than when he was born, since he had been born with this condition. "In the presence of you all" -- Acts 3:16. The proof was before the people. The apostles were willing for the people to examine the subject so as to be sure that no trick had been played

'And now, brethren, I wot thers has not denied Him. Pilate that through ignorance ye did it as did also your rulers" (Acts 3:17). wrong person is put to death for a particular crime. The same applies who ever lived. "...as did also your rulers." The gross ignorance, which the people and their leaders manifested, was without excuse. The Lord Jesus -- their Messiah -- had performed numerous miracles in their presence. He had informed them over and over again as to who He was. The raising of Lazarus from the dead, or any of His other miracles, should have convinced any right-thinking person as to who He was. He, of course, did not reveal Himself to them. They, however, were still responsible to hear and believe. Ignorance was no excuse.

All their hopes and expectations regarding the Messiah were different than what Jesus appeared to be. They, in fact, had expected a prince and a conqueror rather than a lowly Nazarene. The Lord Jesus was the only hope for their nation. They, had they really known this fact, would never have put Him to death. "But those things, God before had which showed by the mouth of all His prophets, that Christ should suffer. He hath so fulfilled" (Acts 3:18). God, by way of His ordained prophets, has revealed His plan to mankind. This fact also shows that Israel should have known who Jesus Christ was. They, after all, had been informed over and over again regarding the fact that He was to suffer and die. God had not been silent. It was only that their ears were dull of hearing. It was one thing for Israel not to hear God's message to them by way of their prophets. It was quite another thing for them to actually hate God's Son -- to spit on Him -- to hit on Him with the palms of their hands and then to crucify Him. They, in other words, treated Him as badly as they knew how to treat Him.

"Repent ye, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord" (Acts 3:19). The word "repent" signifies a complete change of mind regarding Jesus Christ of Nazareth. Repentance would mean that they must completely agree with Peter regarding the past, present, and future relative to Jesus Christ of Nazareth. "And be converted" means to return to the beginning of the path on which they had gone astray. That which Peter is saying is, "Repent and turn." God has so arranged His forgiveness that He does not forgive people who will not repent. Repentance, of course, is of the Lord. We are made sorry for our sins by way of God the Spirit. He produces both repentance and faith in us. No man, in fact, will come to God in repentance and faith unless God draws that person to Himself (John 6:44).

The result of God's action in the sinner is that one's sins are blotted out. The expression, "to blot out sins," is taken from the practice of creditors charging their debtors; and when the debt is paid, they blot out the recorded debt. "When the times

A Scriptural authority, a true church. Presbyte rians were started by John Calvin in the 1500's, and cannot be a true church of Jesus Christ. Only true Baptist churches can meet all the tests of being a true church, and they only have the authority to Baptize. So, the Presbyterian Baptismal (?) service in the picture fails to meet three of the Biblical requirements for baptism. Therefore, this is not a Baptismal self vice, and the paper lied when it labeled it as such.

And how awful to realize that when the Presbyterian preachel said, "I baptize you...." he lied and he probably told this lie in the name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. How aw ful! You may say that he thought he was telling the truth and did not mean to lie. That does not change the fact that he did lie. No wonder I titled this article as I did.
